GILBERT KLEHM
Wheeling Township Supervisor

Gilbert J. Klehm, supervisor of Wheeling township, at the request of the Paddock Publications has written a series of articles regarding the operations and manner in which the relief is handled in his office and in the offices of the other supervisors of Cook county. The articles, the first of which appears herewith, gives an insight into the relief procedure that will be enlightening to the general public as well as to families who are entitled to relief. The editor hopes that articles will result in a better understanding between all concerned and put an end to some of the criticisms that are sometimes uttered by those who are not acquainted with the full facts.

During the past year the office of the Supervisor has had many inquiries regarding application of the relief law and also relief procedure. Much comment has been heard on the streets regarding this procedure and it is evident that the commentators know nothing regarding relief laws or relief budget systems. We have received some criticism from the public due to their ignorance of relief procedure, and the office of the supervisor has thought it best, through these columns, to enlighten the people on relief statistics.

Since July, 1936, responsibility for the administration of poor relief in the State of Illinois has rested with the Township Supervisors, County Commissioners, (in those counties under Commission form of government), and the City Council of the City of Chicago.

Since July, 1938, the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission was given the authority of general supervision over the administration of relief in local government units receiving state funds. This authority did not remove from the overseer of the poor (supervisor), his responsibility as prescribed by the relief laws, but did place in the State agencies a definite responsibility for determining that local and state funds are spent for the purpose intended and also that relief in the local governmental units is properly administered. In order to standardize all relief proceedings this Supervising Agency has issued to all Relief Supervisors a guide for the relief control and accounting proceedings. This control was designed to afford local government units an opportunity to set up satisfactory controls and to provide a minimum of information in connection with the administration of relief. This standardized control calls for the installation in all units of records and controls as outlined in the books of procedure. Our control ledger forms and all the other forms used in the accounting procedure are furnished by the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission and are standard throughout the state. These records are examined monthly by a State Financial Examiner. Any local unit refusing or failing to comply with the rules and regulations are penalized by the withholding of state grants or aid until such government unit has signified its willingness to comply with the rules and regulations of the Commission. House Bill No. 77, enacted by the 60th General assembly provides that townships may not use over ten percent annually of relief monies for payment of administrative expenses. This includes salaries, office rents, utilities, stationery and supplies, furniture and equipment, etc.

LOCAL TAX FUND
Local funds for relief are received by a tax levy or a pauper tax of three mills levied on the entire assessed valuation of the Township. The Illinois Emergency Relief Commission realizes that the entire collection of this levy is never made and have used as a basis for calculating, 75% of the funds to be received from this levy. This is divided into twelve equal parts, each part being the local poor relief resources considered available for every month of the year. As these levies are not collectible, the following year tax anticipation warrants are issued by the township and it is necessary to receive these funds by the sale of these warrants prior to collection. The State Financial Examiner estimates the entire need for the following month — subtracts the local poor relief resources considered available from local funds, thereby showing the actual need from State Relief Funds derived from sales tax revenue. As the State does not have all these funds we receive a pro-rated share of the funds available, thereby constituting a permanent deficit of between ten and fifteen percent of the monthly needs. This deficit can only be overcome by the collection

Arlington Racers will meet the Elgin Watchmakers next Tuesday night at the high school gymnasium. No admission will be charged but the "pass the hat" bargain bill will be resumed. Several Marquette former stars are included in the Elgin lineup. The Racers intended the House of David team and almost defeated them Monday night, the score ending 42-37. 1940, Good Year For Arlington

$75,000 Improvements Thru Use of Gas Tax And WPA Funds Provided

Through the use of state gas tax and WPA funds, the village of Arlington Heights obtained $75,000 in improvements during 1940 at practically no cost to the municipality. Mayor J. D. Flentje has always been quick to secure for the village governmental fostered projects. This policy has resulted in many advantages to Arlington Heights and its citizens.

The use of gas tax funds for the resurfacing of streets is not unusual in Arlington, but it was done the past summer on a larger scale than usual. The original pavements in the town were laid many years ago, and without yearly repairs, replacements would be required. Resurfacing takes its place. The total cost of the work during 1940 was between $6,000 and $7,000 without any cost to the village, the funds coming from state gas tax funds.

A combination of gas tax funds and WPA labor the past year made possible improvements on Wing, Campbell, Dwight, Hickory streets which had a set-up under the governmental provisions of $50,000. That is a lot of money, but a lot of streets were improved saving costs to adjoining property owners and to the village. The municipality's share of set-up was paid from gas tax funds, again not costing the village any of its own money.

The improvement that probably gave more direct benefit to the greatest number of citizens was the sidewalk project under which many miles of sidewalks were laid at the cost of material only, to the property owners. The value of the work and material is conservatively placed at $20,000.

There were two minor WPA projects that were completed for the office of the clerk and treasurer. Uncle Sam paid out approximately $600 for the labor entailed in codifying all existing ordinances and resolutions of the village. Franchises and a historic preface are included in the volume of 400 pages. As part of this project an index and official actions taken by the board of trustees is completed by the volume. The only cost to the village were the materials needed.

The rewriting of special assessments on single sheets cost the government about $2,000, with an additional cost to the village of about $500 for the printing, filing cases, etc. This project simplifies the records of the collector's office and is an aid to individual property owners who desire a complete check of outstanding specials against property owned by them.

$75,000 is a conservative estimate of the value of the "extras" that Arlington Heights has received the past year at little or no cost to its citizens.

Arlington Heights has its own defense project. There is no present shortage of water, but anticipating the probability that present wells will not maintain existing supply, plans for a new deep well were started three months ago and $20,000 in revenue bonds were sold at an interest rate of three percent. The contract for the well has been let.

The village is finishing the year with one piece of unfinished business, controversial in character, that has tied to it $900 in cold cash resting in treasurer's office. It was last January that talk of a two-way police radio was started. A police benefit raised the fund to $900. The board members can't agree on the best way to spend the money and the police department contents itself with the present one-way radio.

Number two bit of unfinished business is the rezoning of the entire village, a job that is so big that it may be unfinished at the end of 1941 and it will probably be as "hot a potato to hold" than it is now. The zoning board has a big task before it.

Village equipment has been increased during the year by purchase of a new Buick police car and a Chevrolet truck.

Arlington Flyers Landing In Wisconsin Snow, Crack Ship

Robert Schneberger and Carl Behrens are none the worse for their experience last week at La Crosse, Wis., but their ship was considerably damaged when they attempted to land in six inches of snow on which a hard crust had formed. The wheels were unable to turn and the landing gear snapped with damage to the wings and supports to the engine.

"It was better to be whole on the ground than circling around in the air in the dense fog," think the two boys who are partners in ownership of the plane which they expected to trade that day for a four-seater. Conditions did not permit a take-off in their new plane and they returned home on the train. They expect to bring home their new ship within the next few days.

We Become A City

The official census population of Arlington Heights is 5657, an increase of 661 over the census of 1930. The present population places the municipality into the city class with a possibility of change in municipality government, establishment of wards, etc. From an economical standpoint that change may not be advantageous to the taxpayers, but Arlington Heights has grown up into a city.

With city classifications comes responsibilities and responsibilities cost money. The cost of operating the municipality is approximately $200 a day, or $60,000 a year.

1940 Building Permits Total $432,815

The year 1940 was not a boom building year, as was 1939, but more homes in the moderate price class were erected, which means that more new residents came to the City of Good Neighbors than during the previous year when Scarsdale experienced a big boom.

Authoritative figures released this week by Paul Tague, building commissioner, total $432,815.00 for the year distributed in classes as follows:

New homes	$370,300.00
New store buildings and warehouses	43,800.00
Private garages	6,445.00
Residential additions and alterations	10,720.00
Non-residential alterations	1,550.00

The building permit for the new movie house is not included in the above.

Business Made Big Increase During 1940

Figures are not yet available as to the increase in dollars and cents of business in Arlington Heights during the past year, but there is much greater business activity and more people are being employed locally today than a year ago.

The new business establishments and new buildings used for business purposes are:

New freight depot, built by Trade and Civic association. Plans made for new movie house. Opening of remodeled store and establishment of an A & P self help.

Thermal-Tile Insulation Co., opens plant on former Hunt Pipe Co., property for manufacture of insulation materials; fourteen employees.

Pete Varnak purchases recreation building and makes improvements costing $7,500.

Geo. C. Poole establishes a Ford agency in Fred Dahm building.

E. W. Rowles Co. moves Chicago plant and main office to Arlington Heights; additional employees number 20.

Creamery Package Co., remodeling; additional employees 12.

Jewel Tea Co. builds and opens large self help store on Campbell st.

Business firms new to Arlington Heights during the year are: Arlington Provision Co., Albert H. Meyer, Inc., Eleanor Bake Shop, and Coronet Beauty Shop.

Fatal Accident Mars Christmas

Frank Vidrick Dies From Broken Neck Three Days Later

Frank Vidrick, 125 S. Chestnut street, Arlington Heights, died in a Chicago hospital, Sunday, three days after he had fallen at the home of a daughter, Christmas and broken his neck.

He had left Arlington Heights at six o'clock Christmas evening. Upon reaching the home of his daughter, 5456 Newcastle ave., he, in some manner, fell and was found by a neighbor and taken into the house, when a physician advised removal at once to a hospital.

He was in a serious condition but was able to talk to members of the family who called upon him. Gradually growing worse he passed away at seven o'clock Sunday evening.

The funeral will be held Friday morning at St. James church, Arlington Heights, with interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Vidrick had been a resident of Arlington Heights ever since he arrived in America 28 years ago. Until two years ago he was employed in a local manufacturing plant, when he entered employment in Chicago.

Where, Oh Where Are Those Seals?

Perhaps the Christmas rush is not yet completely over; at least the Christmas Seal committee knows of one item which has escaped the scrutinizing eye of 330 homes.

However there is still time for those 330 to help make this an outstanding year for Arlington Heights. A successful campaign means that our Health Center can carry on its fight against disease and ill health in 1941.

The committee wishes everyone who received seals would respond. If you are unable to send them back alive to further their work, return them anyway. But far better, if you have merely forgotten about them, send them back as soldiers full of ambition to carry on their fight in our community.

Paddock Publications present to their readers this week the Babson prediction for 1941, a copyrighted article on what is going to happen during the year. Parts of the forecast tell of the forthcoming prosperity and good times that will come to labor and business, war or peace. There is one paragraph that warns of the terror that is almost certain to grip Europe the coming summer when both Germany and Britain will use arsenic to destroy the growing crops of the other.

Summary of Babson's predictions are:

BUSINESS: 10% gain over 1940, with defense program in high gear.

TREND: Present high levels should be exceeded before spring.

POLITICS: No more New Deal legislation in 1941.

MARKETS: Gradual uptrend, but careful Washington scrutiny.

FARMERS: Income up about 5%; benefits at present levels.

WORKERS: Employment, pay rolls at peak figures.

RETAILERS: 5 to 7% gain in sales; prices slightly higher.

CONSUMERS: Less than 5% rise in living expenses.

REALTORS: Residential building up 20%; rents steady.

INVESTORS: Bullish outlook for selected stocks.

SUMMARY: BEST VOLUME OF BUSINESS IN NATION'S HISTORY.

Alumni To Battle Cardinal Teams This Friday

The Arlington Heights high school basketball teams will play the alumni this Friday night in a tune-up for their return to conference competition. After ten days of rest from practice both teams have been hard at work all week, determined both to defeat their former teammates and to improve their conference standings.

Outstanding athletes from the graduating classes of 1939 and 1940 will make up the two alumni teams. Milligan, Henken, and Kehe, now playing with the Smith and Dawson teams, will furnish height in plentiful amounts. Ben Thoman, another tall boy, Bill Hull, and Augie Mayer, are members of the St. James C. Y. O. team and will add to the power of the grads. Bill Beckman and Bob O'Hagan, former stars in three sports at Arlington, will rate as the most dangerous opponents of the Cardinals. Beckman played one semester at Maine Junior College, while O'Hagan, rated as an outstanding young football player at Marquette U., is currently a member of one of the best basketball teams on the campus.

A squad of smaller but effective players has been assembled to play the high school junior-varsity. Jackie Peters, captain of last year's varsity, will team up with Koenig, Koelling, and the Folkman brothers, as well as several other excellent players.

Both the Cardinals and the Green Tornadoes will have to rely on team play and endurance to offset the experience and drive of the alumni. Played on the large and brightly-lighted new gym floor, these games should be among the best of the season. Defeat of the seniors by the juniors in last year's class tournament gives the alumni plenty of incentive to win this time.

Meanwhile the high school players are convinced that they can repeat, even though addition of boys from the class of 39 will make the grads much stronger.

Condition may tell the tale, as the Cardinals and their younger brothers promise to turn on the speed whenever the alumni show signs of faltering. Perhaps the after effects of New Year's will determine the outcome of both games.

Arlington Theatre Closes Doors For Remodeling

Arlington Theatre closed its doors under the management of James Apostol Tuesday night and will re-open as a thousand seat house some time next spring. Inability to secure steel trusses may delay the completion of the new structure six months, but the new owners now plan to make changes contemplated in the present building within sixty days, when shows will be reopened, awaiting arrival of the required steel.

C. W. and Geo. L. Rapp, of Chicago, are the architects. No definite announcement of the identity of the new owners has been made by them, except that a lease for twenty years has been given them by Mr. Apostol.

'We're In The Movies' To Be Shot Next Week

The mythical plot of how an Arlington Heights "Glamour Girl" won herself a "Hollywood" contract, lost her boy friend in so doing and then regained him after a rickety series of incidents will be told in a two-hour moving picture in technicolor under the sponsorship of the Arlington Heights Lions club at the high school auditorium January 17 and 18.

Entitled "We're in the Movies," the cinemasterpiece is financed through the cooperation of local merchants, to replenish the Lions community service fund. It was through this fund that the Lions helped to demolish the old freight depot from the spot that now has become a parking lot near the railroad station.

The Lions milk and eye glass projects for indigent children are two other examples of the community service undertakings that the Lions hope to finance for the coming year through ticket sales for the two performances.

The movie production is in competent hands, the John B. Rogers producing company with Miss Martha Jean Robinson, director, who has already arrived in Arlington Heights and started the ball rolling. A cameraman will arrive the latter part of next week and start "shooting." Local residents will want to watch for announcements in the store windows as to when and where shots will be made so that everyone possible can "get his nose" into the scenes.

Starting this Thursday morning, Miss Robinson, a member of the advertising committee of the Lions club who will accompany her, will contact the business men in the community each day until Tuesday evening for obtaining their cooperation in the movie. The movie is expected to have lasting interest to the community as it will be retained by the Lions club. It will be interesting as a moving picture of how we looked way back in 1941.

Movie Queen Contest

"We're in the Movies" is not going to be without its splendor of beautiful girls. A "movie queen" contest for which every girl in the community has an opportunity to win is starting next week. The movie queen and her coterie of probably eight attendants will be selected from the leading contestants as well as on the stage on the evenings of the performances.

Any young lady of sixteen years of age or over is eligible for nomination. A meeting of the nominees will be held Monday evening, at Paddock Publications office, 217 W. Campbell. Nominations will close Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

Any young lady may nominate herself or she may be nominated by anyone else in the community.

Nomination coupon which may be deposited for 100 votes at the following places where boxes will be placed for that purpose for the duration of the contest: Sieburg's drug store, Arlington Heights National bank; Rodewald News Agency and North side A&P store.

Chairmen of the committees that are in charge of the production are as follows:

General chairman, C. A. Hughes M. Lottor; advertising, Walter Karstens, J. D. Flentje, Elroy Harris, Nicholas Lottor; tickets, William Gronert, Carl Ewert, C. V. Baker; movie queen, E. J. Harris; publicity, S. R. Paddock, Jr.; talent chairman, A. M. Conger.

Forecast Prosperous '41 For Business And Labor

High Payrolls; Few Strikes; Prosperity for All; Except Farmers

Babson Park, Mass., Dec. 31. A question to discuss before making a forecast for 1941 is: "Will World War II continue throughout the year?" My answer is that it will surely continue at least until the fall. For the purposes of my forecast, this is equivalent to the entire year of 1941.

Germany is storing up huge quantities of arsenic to be used in an attempt to destroy the crops of Great Britain next summer or next fall. If England is also storing arsenic and succeeds in destroying the crops of Germany, the War may end next fall. It is evident that both sides will attempt destruction by arsenic, fire, or otherwise. I say this because the effect of such a crop-killing campaign would be more serious for Germany than for England. England is dependent to the extent of only 35% on her home crops, while Germany's dependence is 90%. Germany, moreover, is unable to import except by robbing adjoining nations, and hence, must conserve all her own crops. People are not frightened by bombs, as only one person out of many thousands suffers from them; but the fear of starvation will throw a nation into panic. Hence, statisticians believe that the ending of the War in favor of England depends upon the success of the British Blockade supplemented by the destruction of German crops.

Let's Look At The Record

Let me say that 1941 should be the best business year this country has ever witnessed. Everything from cradles to coffins, including dividends and pay envelopes, should show a fine gain over 1940. We hear much howling about taxes. When you consider, however, that the Excess Profits Tax on firms with large invested capital does not begin until they earn 3% net, even taxes are not so serious.

Industrial activity directly related to defense will account for about 10% of total 1941 business. Production indirectly related to defense will also aggregate about 10%. Thus, in 1941, 20% of our total business activity will come from armaments. I expect the Babsonchart Index of Business to average about 10% higher than in 1940. Notable gains should take place in textiles, shoes, mining, foods, printing, publishing, shipbuilding, building, freight traffic, and many other industries. By spring, business volume will be recording a new all-time high.

It would be foolish to put a definite figure on what the Babsonchart Index will show in 1941, but I should not be surprised if it averages 125. Estimating the country's income for 1940 at $74,000,000,000, I forecast a rise to well above $80,000,000,000 for 1941. The 1939 figure was $70,000,000,000. The greatest national income to date was in 1929 when it was $82,855,000,000. This calls for a reduction in unemployment of 50%, an increase in building of 20%, and an increase in retail trade of 5-7%. This means that sales of physical volume of merchandise will show moderate gains, as retail prices will average only slightly higher than they were last year. This is a very healthy sign.

War Or Peace, Business Will Be Better

I believe that we would have a prosperous 1941 irrespective of our defense program. The big business backlog, the great shortage of houses, and the unprecedented supply of idle funds are bound to lead to a return of good times. When we add to this fact the tremendous effect of the defense program, the result is staggering. If you have any doubt, read in your newspaper of the contracts made by the government every day for supplies of all kinds. Not only will the demand for goods be greater during World War II, but our industries are in far better position to handle the business. The automobile industry, for instance, has built approximately 76,000,000 cars since 1918. It is now prepared to build airplane engines and machine guns, as well as trucks and tanks.

The electric-power industry, thanks to President Roosevelt, has covered the country with a vast net-work of transmission lines, furnishing today power at rates 40% below those of 1918. Our generating capacity is from four to five times that of Great Britain or Germany. Experts say that the War will be won by oil. If so, we are fortunate in having three-fifths of the annual world's production, distributed by over 95,000 miles of pipe lines to all parts of the country.

We have over one-third of the railroad mileage of the world. The physical condition of our railroads has improved as money, which heretofore has been spent on interest, has been put into maintenance. Let us not forget our telephone service which connects 40,000,000 miles of wire. All of these items show tremendous increases from every point of view. Whatever may be the truth as to the nation's preparedness for War, it is certainly true that we never before were so well prepared for a great industrial expansion.

What About The Railroads?

As readers know, I have never recommended railroad securities since I spent two years as Assistant to the Secretary of Labor at Washington, from 1917-1919, and fought with leaders of the railroad unions. I came back from there saying that even if any cream should rise from the railroad milk, it would be skimmed by labor and never reach stockholders. Railroad security owners are further faced with severe competition by the truck, the bus, the airplane, and the automobile. Even today, approximately 10% of the nation's freight and 25% of the nation's passengers are being transported on rubber. These figures, moreover, are increasing at the rate of about 20% a year; while the percentage of freight and passengers hauled by the railroads is constantly declining. When railroad earnings look good in 1941, this will be the time to get out and stay out. Do not be fooled on the long-pull outlook by news items of rising carloadings and earnings.

Idle Funds At Maximum Peak

We enter 1941 with the highest known record of national bank excess reserves,—about seven billion dollars. This means that banks are in a position to loan billions of additional credit. No such good condition ever existed in our nation before. Our outstanding bank notes are covered nearly 100% by actual gold, while other countries have a coverage averaging only about 10%. More money is being carried in the pockets of people today than ever before. The money in circulation in the U. S. as I dictate this column, amounts to $8,500,000,000.

Dividends are popping like firecrackers. Dividend record sheets show a tremendous expansion in disbursements, equal to the balmy days of 1928-29. It is well enough to talk about the explosives which are being manufactured by the defense industry, but surely some of the statistical explosives on my desk should be the basis of some real fireworks in 1941. I emphasize this so strongly because the defense program has hardly started. Recent Army and Navy monthly expenditures have been only about 30% of what they will be during 1941. Construction is just starting on so many of the plants which are necessary to produce hundreds of thousands of needed items and materials, that statisticians estimate it will be the fall of 1941, at least, before we get fully under way.

It is estimated that it cost Germany twenty billion dollars to arm. During the five years she was engaged in this, she paid her workers twenty-five cents per hour. If we must pay our workers three to four times this, you see what it will cost this country to duplicate the German war machine. A year from now it will be time enough to discuss 1942, 1943, and 1944; but as far as 1941 goes, nothing can be done except peace talk if it should come in the fall of 1941. The world is entering a new era—

Forecast Prosperous '41 For Business And Labor

-- Babson's Business Outlook

Sees Congress Afraid 'To Fish, Cut Bait, Or Go Ashore'

industrially, economically, and socially. It is hard for us older men to become reconciled to these changes; but every day there are 4,000 funerals. The undertakers are bringing back prosperity.

Home Building Will Continue

During World War I, the building of homes was restricted. Contractors were not allowed the necessary cement, bricks, lumber and nails for building homes. World War II, however, is an entirely different war. The building of a hundred-thousand-dollar airplane does not take much material, but rather labor, skill, and time. It is true that we must enter a ship-building program—both of naval vessels and merchant ships—but otherwise, there is nothing to interfere with home building. I, therefore, forecast that residence construction in 1941 will show an increase of nearly 20% over 1940. Presumably, it will cost a little more to build a home in 1941 than it has in the past few years; but there is a reasonable available supply of building materials. Besides, masons, carpenters, plumbers, and painters are primarily interested in their year's income rather than hourly wage. Therefore, if they can be sure of finding work every day they should be content with present wages. Another thing: During World War I, there were no such available funds as there are today. It was then impossible to borrow government money for the building of homes. All the conditions are entirely different now. Hence, I disagree with those who say that home-building will be shut off in 1941.

What About Congress?

1941 will witness a different Congress than has ever been seen before. This is a very rash statement; but you wait until the year is over. It will be neither a brave Congress nor a rubber-stamp Congress. It will be a paralyzed Congress. It just will not know what to do, or what not to do, except to spend money. It will want to help Great Britain, and yet sees so much havoc ahead for both Great Britain and Europe that it will dread getting into the mess. Certainly Congress will be in no mood to vote for declaring war against Germany, Japan, or any other nation. It will be bewildered and afraid to "fish, cut bait, or go ashore."

The new Congress is a conservative body, although it is democratic. It not only dreads war for its own sake, but believes that if we enter World War II, we really will end up with a dictator. This, moreover, is not merely third term campaign talk. There is a latent dread of this among the labor and farming elements as well as businessmen. All groups are beginning to see that special legislation — starting with "protective" tariffs fifty years ago — has led from one thing to another until the cure is worse than the disease. They wonder if the answer may not be to wipe all out and start over again.

GILBERT KLEHM
Wheeling Township Supervisor

Gilbert J. Klehm, supervisor of Wheeling township, at the request of the Paddock Publications has written a series of articles regarding the operations and manner in which the relief is handled in his office and in the offices of the other supervisors of Cook county. The Articles, the first of which appears herewith, gives an insight of the relief procedure that will be enlightening to the general public as well as to families who are entitled to relief. The editor hopes that articles will result in a better understanding between all concerned and put an end to some of the criticisms that are sometimes uttered by those who are not acquainted with the full facts.

During the past year the office of the Supervisor has had many inquiries regarding application of the relief law and also relief procedure. Much comment has been heard on the streets regarding this procedure and it is evident that the commentators know nothing regarding relief laws or relief budget systems. We have received some criticism from the public due to their ignorance of relief procedure, and the office of the supervisor has thought it best through these columns to enlighten the people on relief statistics.

Since July, 1936, responsibility for the administration of poor relief in the State of Illinois has rested with the Township Supervisors, County Commissioners, (in those counties under Commission form of government), and the City Council of the City of Chicago.

Since July, 1938, the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission was given the authority of general supervision over the administration of relief in local government units receiving state funds. This authority did not remove from the supervisor of the poor (supervisor), his responsibility as prescribed by the relief laws, but did place in the State agencies a definite responsibility for determining that local and state funds are spent for the purpose intended and also that relief in the local governmental units is properly administered. In order to standardize all relief proceedings this Supervising Agency has issued to all Relief Supervisors a guide for the relief control and accounting proceedings. This control was designed to afford local government units an opportunity to set up satisfactory controls and to provide a minimum of information in connection with the administration of relief. This standardized control calls for the installation in all units, of records and controls as outlined in the books of procedure. Our control ledger forms and all the other forms used in the accounting procedure are furnished by the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission and are standard throughout the state. These records are examined monthly by a State Financial Examiner. Any local unit refusing or failing to comply with the rules and regulations are penalized by the withholding of state grants or aid until such government unit has signified its willingness to comply with the rules and regulations of the Commission. House Bill No. 77 enacted by the 60th General assembly provides that townships may receive over ten percent annually of relief monies for payment of administrative expenses. This includes salaries, office rents, utilities, stationery and supplies, furniture and equipment, etc.

LOCAL TAX FUND
Local funds for relief are received by a tax levy or a pauper tax of three mills levied on the entire assessed valuation of the Township. The Illinois Emergency Relief Commission realizes that the entire collection of this levy is never made and have used as a basis for calculating, 75% of the funds to be received from this levy. This is divided into twelve equal parts, each part being the local poor relief resources considered available for every month of the year. As these levies are not collectible, the following year tax anticipation warrants are issued by the township and it is necessary to receive these funds by the sale of these warrants prior to collection. The State Financial Examiner estimates the entire need for the following month — subtracts the local poor relief resources considered available from local funds, thereby showing the actual need from sales tax revenues. As the State does not have all these funds we receive a pro-rated share of the permanent deficit of the township. This deficit can only be overcome by the collection

WATCHMAKERS NEXT TUES.
Arlington Racers will meet the Elgin Watchmakers next Tuesday night at the high school gymnasium. No admission will be charged but the "pass the hat" bargain bill will be resumed. Several Marquette former stars are included in the Elgin lineup. The Racers extended the House of David team and almost defeated them Monday night, the score ending 42-37. Kahlins starred with 11 points.

1940, Good Year For Arlington

$75,000 Improvements Thru Use of Gas Tax And WPA Funds Provided

Through the use of state gas tax and WPA funds the village of Arlington Heights obtained $75,000 in improvements during 1940 at practically no cost to the municipality. Mayor J. D. Flentie has always been quick to secure for the village governmental fostered projects. This policy has resulted in many advantages to Arlington Heights and its citizens.

The use of gas tax funds for the resurfacing of streets is not unusual in Arlington, but it was done the past summer on a larger scale than usual. The original pavements in the town were laid many years ago, and without yearly repairs, replacements would be required. Resurfacing takes its place. The total cost of the work during 1940 was between $6,000 and $7,000 without any cost to the village, the funds coming from state gas tax funds.

A combination of gas tax funds and WPA labor the past year made possible improvements on Wing, Campbell, Dwyer, Hickory streets which had a setup under the governmental provisions of $50,000. That is a lot of money, but a lot of streets were improved saving costs to adjoining property owners and to the village. The municipality's share of set-up was paid from gas tax funds, again not costing the village any of its own money.

The improvement that probably gave more direct benefit to the greatest number of citizens was the sidewalk project under which many miles of sidewalks were laid at the cost of material only, to the property owner. The value of the work and material is conservatively placed at $20,000.

There were two minor WPA projects that were completed for the office of the clerk and treasurer. One Sam paid out approximately $600 for the labor entailed in coding all existing ordinances and resolutions of the village. Franchises and a historic preface are included in the volume of 400 pages. As part of this project an index card system covering all resolutions and official actions taken by the board of trustees completes the volume. The only cost to the village were the materials needed.

The rewriting of special assessments on single sheets cost the government about $2,000, with an additional cost to the village of about $500 for the printing, filing cases, etc. This project simplifies the records of the collector's office and is an aid to individual property owners who desire a complete check of outstanding specials against property owned by them.

$75,000 is a conservative estimate of the value of the "extras" that Arlington Heights has received the past year at little or no cost to its citizens.

Arlington Heights has its own defense project. There is no present shortage of water, but anticipating the probability that present wells will not maintain existing supply, plans for a new deep well were started three months ago and $20,000 in revenue bonds were sold at an interest rate of three per cent. The contract for the well has been let.

The village is finishing the year with one piece of unfinished business, controversial in character, that has tied to it $900 in cash resting in treasurer's office. It was last January that talk of a two-day police radio was started. A police benefit raised the fund to $900. The board members can't agree on the best way to spend the money and the police department contents itself with the present money radio.

Number two bit of unfinished business is the rezoning of the entire village, a job that is so big that it may be unfinished at the end of 1941 and it will probably be as "hot a potato to hold" then as it is now. The zoning board has a big task before it.

Village equipment has been increased during the year by purchase of a new Buick police car and a Chevrolet truck.

Arlington Flyers Landing In Wisconsin Snow, Crack Ship

Robert Schneberger and Carl Behrens are none the worse for their experience last week at a "prossie" Wis., but their ship was considerably damaged when they attempted to land in six inches of snow on which a hard crust had formed. The wheels were unable to turn and the landing gear snapped, with damage to the wings and supports to the engine.

"It was better to be whole on the ground than circling around in the air in the dense fog," think the two boys who are partners in ownership of the plane which they expected to trade that day for a four-seater. Conditions did not permit a take-off in their new plane and they returned home on the train. They expect to bring home their new ship within the next few days.

We Become A City

The official census population of Arlington Heights is 5657, an increase of 661 over the census of 1930. The present population places the municipality into the city class with a possibility of change in municipality government, establishment of wards, etc. From an economical standpoint that change may not be advantageous to the taxpayers, but Arlington Heights has grown up into a city.

With city classifications comes responsibilities and responsibilities cost money. The cost of operating the municipality is approximately $200 a day, or $60,000 a year.

1940 Building Permits Total $432,815

The year 1940 was not a boom building year, as was 1939, but more homes in the moderate price class were erected, which means that more new residents came to the City of Good Neighbors than during the previous year when Scarsdale experienced a big boom.

Authoritative figures released this week by Paul Tague, building commissioner total $432,815 for the year distributed in classes as follows:

New homes	$370,300.00
New store buildings and warehouses	43,800.00
Private garages	6,445.00
Residential additions and alterations	10,720.00
Non-residential alterations	1,550.00
Total	$432,815.00

The building permit for the new movie house is not included in the above.

Business Made Big Increase During 1940

Figures are not yet available as to the increase in dollars and cents of business in Arlington Heights during the past year, but there is much greater business activity and more people are being employed locally today than a year ago.

The new business establishments and new buildings used for business purposes are:

- New freight depot, built by Trade and Civic association.
- Plans made for new movie house.
- Opening of remodeled store and establishment of an A & P self help.

Thermal-Tile Insulation Co., opens plant on former Hume Pipe Co. property for manufacture of insulation materials; fourteen employees.

Pete Varnak purchases recreation building and makes improvements costing $7,500.

Geo. C. Poole establishes a Ford agency in Fred Dahm building.

E. W. Rowles Co. moves Chicago plant and main office to Arlington Heights; additional employees number 20.

Creamery Package Co., remodeling; additional employees 12.

Jewel Tea Co. builds and opens large self help store on Campbell st.

Business firms new to Arlington Heights during the year are: Arlington Provision Co., Albert H. Meyer, Inc., Eleanor Bake Shop, and Coronet Beauty Shop.

Fatal Accident Mars Christmas

Frank Vidrick Dies From Broken Neck Three Days Later

Frank Vidrick, 125 S. Chestnut street, Arlington Heights, died in a Chicago hospital, Sunday, three days after he had fallen at the home of a daughter, Christmas and broken his neck.

He had left Arlington Heights at six o'clock Christmas evening. Upon reaching the home of his daughter, 5456 Newcastle ave., he, in some manner, fell and was found by a neighbor and taken into the house, when a physician advised removal at once to a hospital.

He was in a serious condition but was able to talk to members of the family who called upon him. Gradually growing worse he passed away at seven o'clock Sunday evening.

The funeral will be held Friday morning at St. James church, Arlington Heights, with interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Vidrick had been a resident of Arlington Heights ever since he arrived in America 28 years ago. Until two years ago he was employed in a local manufacturing plant, when he entered employment in Chicago.

Where, Oh Where Are Those Seals?

Perhaps the Christmas rush is not yet completely over; at least the Christmas Seal committee knows of one item which has escaped the scrutinizing eye of 330 homes.

However there is still time for those 330 to help make this an outstanding year for Arlington Heights. A successful campaign means that our Health Center can carry on its fight against disease and ill health in 1941.

The committee wishes everyone who received seals would respond. If you are unable to send them back alive to further their work, return them anyway. But far better, if you have merely forgotten about them, send them back as soldiers full of ambition to carry on their fight in our community.

Paddock Publications present to their readers this week the Babson prediction for 1941, a copyrighted article on what is going to happen during the year. Parts of the forecast tell of the forthcoming prosperity and good times that will come to labor and business, war or peace. There is one paragraph that warns of the terror that is almost certain to grip Europe the coming summer when both Germany and Britain will use arsenic to destroy the growing crops of the other.

Summary of Babson's predictions are:

BUSINESS: 10% gain over 1940, with defense program in high gear.

TREND: Present high levels should be exceeded before spring.

POLITICS: No more New Deal legislation in 1941.

MARKETS: Gradual uptrend, but careful Washington scrutiny.

FARMERS: Income up about 5%, benefits at present levels.

WORKERS: Employment, pay rolls at peak figures.

RETAILERS: 5 to 7% gain in sales; prices slightly higher.

CONSUMERS: Less than 5% rise in living expenses.

REALTORS: Residential building up 20%; rents steady.

INVESTORS: Bullish outlook for selected stocks.

SUMMARY: BEST VOLUME OF BUSINESS IN NATION'S HISTORY.

Alumni To Battle Cardinal Teams This Friday

The Arlington Heights high school basketball teams will play the alumni this Friday night in a tune-up for their return to conference competition. After ten days of rest from practice both teams have been hard at work all week, determined both to defeat their former teammates and to improve their conference standings.

Outstanding athletes from the graduating classes of 1939 and 1940 will make up the two alumni teams. Milligan, Henken, and Kehe, now playing with the Smith and Dawson teams, will furnish height in plentiful amounts. Ben Thomas, another tall boy, Bill Hull, and Augie Mayer, are members of the St. James C. Y. team and will add to the power of the grads.

Bill Beckman and Bob O'Hagan, former stars in three sports at Arlington, will rate as the most dangerous opponents of the Cardinals. Beckman played one semester at Maine Junior College, while O'Hagan, rated as an outstanding young football player at Marquette U., is currently a member of one of the best basketball teams on the campus.

A squad of smaller but effective players has been assembled to play the high school junior-varsity. Jackie Peters, captain of last year's varsity, will team up with Koening, Koelling, and the Folkman brothers, as well as several other excellent players.

Both the Cardinals and the Green Tornadoes will have to rely on team play and endurance to offset the experience and drive of the alumni. Played on the large and brightly-lit new gym floor, these games should be among the best of the season. Defeat of the seniors by the juniors in last year's class tournament gives the alumni plenty of incentive to win this time.

Meanwhile the high school players are convinced that they can repeat, even though addition of boys from the class of 39 will make the grade much stronger.

Condition may tell the tale, as the Cardinals and their younger brothers promise to turn on the speed whenever the alumni show signs of faltering. Perhaps the after effects of New Year's will determine the outcome of both games.

Arlington Theatre Closes Doors For Remodeling

Arlington Theatre closed its doors under the management of James Apostol Tuesday night and will re-open as a thousand seat house some time next spring. Inability to secure steel trusses may delay the completion of the new structure six months, but the new owners now plan to make changes contemplated in the present building within sixty days, when shows will be reopened, awaiting arrival of the required steel.

C. W. and Geo. L. Rapp, of Chicago, are the architects. No definite announcement of the identity of the new owners has been made by them, except that a lease for twenty years has been given them by Mr. Apostol.

'We're In The Movies' To Be Shot Next Week

The mythical plot of how an Arlington Heights "Glamour Girl" won herself a "Hollywood" contract, lost her boy friend in so doing and then regained him after a rollicking series of incidents will be told in a two-hour moving picture in technicolor under the sponsorship of the Arlington Heights Lions club at the high school auditorium January 17 and 18.

Entitled "We're in the Movies," the cinemasterpiece is financed through the cooperation of local merchants, to replenish the Lions community service fund. It was through this fund that the Lions helped to demolish the old freight depot from the spot that now has become a parking lot near the railroad station.

The Lions milk and eye glass projects for indigent children are two other examples of the community service undertakings that the Lions hope to finance for the coming year through ticket sales for the two performances.

Director Here
The movie production is in competent hands, the John B. Rogers producing company with Miss Martha Jean Robinson, director, who has already arrived in Arlington Heights and started the ball rolling. A cameraman will arrive the latter part of next week and start "shooting." Local residents will want to watch for announcements in the store windows as to when and where shots will be made so that everyone possible can "get his nose" into the scenes.

Starting this Thursday morning, Miss Robinson, a member of the advertising committee of the Lions club who will accompany her, will contact the business men in the community each day until Tuesday evening for obtaining their cooperation in the movie. The movie is expected to have lasting interest to the community as it will be retained by the Lions club. It will be interesting as a moving picture of how we looked way back in 1941.

Movie Queen Contest
"We're in the Movies" is not going to be without its splendor of beautiful girls. A "movie queen" contest for which every girl in the community has an opportunity to win is starting next week. The movie queen and her coteries of probably eight attendants will be selected from the leading contestants as well as on the stage on the evenings of the performances.

Any young lady of sixteen years of age or over is eligible for nomination. A meeting of the nominees will be held Monday evening, at Paddock Publications office, 217 W. Campbell. Nominations will close Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

Any young lady may nominate herself or she may be nominated by anyone else in the community. Nomination coupon which may be deposited for 100 votes at the following places where boxes will be placed for that purpose for the duration of the contest: Sieburg's drug store, Arlington Heights National Bank, Rodewald news agency and North side A&P store.

Chairmen of the committees that are in charge of the production are as follows:

General chairman, C. A. Hughes M. Lattoff; advertising, Walter Karstens, J. D. Flentie, Elroy Harris, Nicholas Lattoff; tickets, William Gronert, Carl Ewert, C. V. Baker; movie queen, E. J. Harris; publicity, S. R. Paddock, Jr.; talent chairman, A. M. Conger.

Forecast Prosperous '41 For Business And Labor

High Payrolls; Few Strikes; Prosperity for All; Except Farmers

Babson Park, Mass., Dec. 31. A question to discuss before making a forecast for 1941 is: "Will World War II continue throughout the year?" My answer is that it will surely continue at least until the fall. For the purposes of my forecast, this is equivalent to the entire year of 1941.

Germany is storing up huge quantities of arsenic to be used in an attempt to destroy the crops of Great Britain next summer or next fall. If England is also storing arsenic and succeeds in destroying the crops of Germany, the War may end next fall. It is evident that both sides will attempt destruction by arsenic, fire, or otherwise. I say this because the effect of such a crop-killing campaign would be more serious for Germany than for England. England is dependent to the extent of only 35% on her home crops, while Germany's dependence is 90%. Germany, moreover, is unable to import except by robbing adjoining nations, and hence, must conserve all her own crops. People are not frightened by bombs, as only one person out of many thousands suffers from them; but the fear of starvation will throw a nation into panic. Hence, statisticians believe that the ending of the War in favor of England depends upon the success of the British blockade supplemented by the destruction of German crops.

Let's Look At The Record
Let me say that 1941 should be the best business year this country has ever witnessed. Everything from cradles to coffins, including dividends and pay envelopes, should show a fine gain over 1940. We hear much howling about taxes. When you consider, however, that the Excess Profits Tax on firms with large invested capital does not begin until they earn 8% net, even taxes are not so serious.

Industrial activity directly related to defense will account for about 10% of total 1941 business. Production indirectly related to defense will also aggregate about 10%. Thus, in 1941, 20% of our total business activity will come from armaments. I expect the Babsonchart Index of Business to average about 10% higher than in 1940. Notable gains should take place in textiles, shoes, mining, foods, printing, publishing, shipbuilding, building, freight traffic, and many other industries. By spring, business volume will be recording a new all-time high.

It would be foolish to put a definite figure on what the Babsonchart Index will show in 1941, but I should not be surprised if it averages 125. Estimating the country's income for 1940 at $74,000,000,000, I forecast a rise to well above $80,000,000,000 for 1941. The 1939 figure was $70,000,000,000. The greatest national income to date was in 1929, when it was $82,850,000,000. This calls for a reduction in unemployment of 50%, an increase in building of 20%, and an increase in retail trade of 5-7%. This means that sales of physical volume of merchandise will show moderate gains, as retail prices will average only slightly higher than they were last year. This is a very healthy sign.

War Or Peace, Business Will Be Better
I believe that we would have a prosperous 1941 irrespective of our defense program. The big business backlog, the great shortage of houses, and the unprecedented supply of funds are bound to lead to a return of good times. When we add to this fact the tremendous effect of the defense program, the result is staggering. If you have any doubt, read in your newspaper of the contracts made by the government every day for supplies of all kinds. Not only will the demand for goods be greater during World War II, but our industries are in far better position to handle the business. The automobile industry, for instance, has built approximately 76,000,000 cars since 1918. It is now prepared to build airplane engines and machine guns, as well as trucks and tanks.

The electric-power industry, thanks to President Roosevelt, has covered the country with a vast network of transmission lines, furnishing today power at rates 40% below those of 1918. Our generating capacity is from four to five times that of Great Britain or Germany. Experts say that the War will be won by oil. If so, we are fortunate in having three-fifths of the annual world's production, distributed by over 95,000 miles of pipe lines to all parts of the country.

We have over one-third of the railroad mileage of the world. The physical condition of our railroads has improved as money, which heretofore has been spent on maintenance, has been put into maintenance. Let us not forget our telephone service which connects 40,000 communities by nearly 100,000,000 miles of wire. All of these show tremendous increases used from every point of view. What will take plenty of opposition to

What About The Railroads?

As readers know, I have never recommended railroad securities since I spent two years as Assistant to the Secretary of Labor at Washington, from 1917-1919, and fought with leaders of the railroad unions. I came back from there saying that even if any cream should rise from the railroad milk, it would be skimmed by labor and never reach stockholders. Railroad security owners are further faced with severe competition by the truck, the bus, the airplane, and the automobile. Even today, approximately 10% of the nation's freight and 25% of the nation's passengers are being transported on rubber. These figures, moreover, are increasing at the rate of about 20% a year; while the percentage of freight and passengers hauled by the railroads is constantly declining. When railroad earnings look good in 1941, this will be the time to get out and stay out. Do not be fooled on the long-pull outlook by news items of rising carloadings, and earnings.

Idle Funds At Maximum Peak

We enter 1941 with the highest known record of national bank excess reserves,—about seven billion dollars. This means that banks are in a position to loan billions of additional credit. No such good condition ever existed in our nation before. Our outstanding bank notes are covered nearly 100% by actual gold, while other countries have a coverage averaging only about 10%. More money is being carried in the pockets of people today than ever before. The money in circulation in the U. S. as I dictate this column, amounts to $8,500,000,000.

Dividends are popping like firecrackers. Dividend record sheets show a tremendous expansion in disbursements, equal to the balmy days of 1928-29. It is well enough to talk about the explosives which are being manufactured by the de Pont and other powder-producing plants; but surely some of the statistical explosives on my desk should be the basis of some real fireworks: in 1941. I emphasize this so strongly because the defense program has hardly started.

Recent Army and Navy monthly expenditures have been only about 30% of what they will be during 1941. Construction is just starting on so many of the plants which are necessary to produce hundreds of thousands of needed items and materials, that statisticians estimate it will be the fall of 1941, at least, before we get fully under way.

It is estimated that it cost Germany twenty billion dollars to arm during the five years she was engaged in this, she paid her workers twenty-five cents per hour. If we must pay our workers three to four times this, you see what it will cost this country to duplicate the German war machine. A year from now it will be time enough to discuss 1942, 1943, and 1944; but as far as 1941 goes, nothing can stop us,—not even peace talk if it should come in the fall of 1941. The world is entering a new era—

New York Renaissance Team To Play Smith & Dawson

by CHARLES O'HAGAN

One of basketball's greatest attractions, the famed Renaissance quintet, composed of some of the world's best colored cage stars will appear at Arlington Heights Saturday, against the Smith and Dawson Realtors. The game will be played at the high school gym with an opener starting at 7:45.

A pair of seaplanes, Al. "Big Train" Johnson and "Wee Willie" Smith alternate at the pivot spot. Captain Eyre Smith is the spark plug of the Rens while "Pop" Gates, "Puggy" Bell and Zack Clayton are all outstanding performers on the basketball floor.

"Big Train" Johnson is the fast, stop the Rens' new star.

The electric-power industry, thanks to President Roosevelt, has covered the country with a vast network of transmission lines, furnishing today power at rates 40% below those of 1918. Our generating capacity is from four to five times that of Great Britain or Germany. Experts say that the War will be won by oil. Sees Congress Afraid 'To Fish, Cut Bait, Or Go Ashore'

industrially, economically, and socially. It is hard for us older men to become reconciled to these changes; but every day there are 4,000 funerals. The undertakers are bringing back prosperity.

Home Building Will Continue

During World War I, the building of homes was restricted. Contractors were not allowed the necessary cement, bricks, lumber and nails for building homes. World War II, however, is an entirely different war. The building of a hundred-thousand-dollar airplane does not take much material, but rather labor, skill, and time. It is true that we must enter a shipbuilding program—both of naval vessels and merchant ships—but otherwise, there is nothing to interfere with home building. I, therefore, forecast that residence construction in 1941 will show an increase of nearly 20% over 1940. Presumably, it will cost a little more to build a home in 1941 than it has in the past few years; but there is a reasonable available supply of building materials. Besides, masons, carpenters, plumbers, and painters are primarily interested in their year's income rather than hourly wage. Therefore, if they can be sure of finding work everyday they should be content with present wages. Another thing: During World War I, there were no such available funds as there are today. It was then impossible to borrow government money for the building of homes. All the conditions are entirely different now. Hence, I disagree with those who say that homebuilding will be shut off in 1941.

What About Congress?

1941 will witness a different Congress than has ever been seen before. This is a very rash statement; but you wait until the year is over. It will be neither a brave Congress nor a rubber-stamp Congress. It will be a paralyzed Congress. It just will not know what to do, or what not to do, except to spend money. It will want to help Great Britain, and yet sees so much havoc ahead for both Great Britain and Europe that it will dread getting into the mess. Certainly Congress will be in no mood to vote for declaring war against Germany, Japan, or any other nation. It will be bewildered and afraid to "fish, cut bait, or go ashore."

The new Congress is a conservative body, although it is democratic. It not only dreads war for its own sake, but believes that if we enter World War II, we really will end up with a dictator. This, moreover, is not merely "third term" campaign talk. There is a latent dread of this among the labor and farming elements as well as businessmen. All groups are beginning to see that special legislation — starting with "protective" tariffs fifty years ago — has led from one thing to another until the cure is worse than the disease. They wonder if the answer may not be to wipe all out and start over again.

Asks County To Sponsor Rural Dental Clinic
Crane Farm Equipment Available; Wheeling To Furnish Quarters

If the plans of Gilbert J. Klehm, Wheeling township supervisor, are successful, children of pre-school and of school age, residing in Wheeling township outside of the corporate limits of Arlington Heights whose parents have not the means to pay, will receive the required dental attention.

Mr. Klehm has outlined his plan in letters addressed to Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, of the Cook County Public Welfare, and County Commissioner, William Busse. The supervisor pointed out to the county officials that the dental equipment at the former Crane home for widows and children, was available as it had been left for the benefit of the children of Wheeling township.

The board of directors of the village of Wheeling public school, has agreed to set aside a room and furnish the lights, water and necessary utilities for the operation of a dental clinic for the benefit of underprivileged children of pre-school and school age up to 16 years. All that is needed to put the plan in operation and to provide the dental care that is so badly needed, is the furnishing of a dentist by the county public welfare department.

Children residing within the village of Arlington Heights are exempted from the plan because they are now being served by the operation of a dental clinic sponsored by various Arlington Heights organizations, funds for which are raised publicly. The operation of the latter clinic has been very successful.

when the Communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed and new members will be received into the church. The pastor will speak briefly on "The Meaning of the Lord's Supper," and there will be special music by the choir under the direction of A. E. Johnson with Mrs. James Groves as organist.

The Pioneer Society for Intermediates will meet Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock and the Senior Young Peoples Society will meet Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

The Session and Board of Trustees will meet at church Monday night at 7:30 o'clock for separate meetings and for a joint meeting at 8:15 o'clock.

The Missionary Society will meet Friday afternoon, December 10, for its regular meeting. The study will be on China.

A leadership training class will be started the third Monday night in January and will be offered on "How to Teach in the Church School."

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to study and worship with us.

It Happened Here
From a recent letter: "The only exciting event in our family is the news that our cousin, Clare Connor, won the Distinguished Flying Cross. He was an aviator in England and acted with great coolness and bravery during an air raid over Antwerp. He went to Buckingham Palace to receive his award from the King. His young wife and his sister went with him and were thrilled. The sister, Frances, is in the fire department and she sounded the first air raid signal of the war in central London. Soon after hearing the fine news, it was sad to hear that poor Clare was lost in an air raid. His body was picked up by the Royal Navy and buried in England. It is "right meet and our bounden duty" to pay humble tribute to one who has fought valiantly in a warfare unparalleled since Satan was cast down from the ramparts of Heaven; only Milton can offer him a fitting chapter. With Milton and the prophets in mind, it is like a word of prophecy to have the radio proclaim in Richard Crooks' tenor "say unto her that her warfare is accomplished and her iniquity is pardoned." The street has produced three mail carriers where only one trudged under his pack heretofore, and there is an unprecedented, colorful snowfall of Christmas cards; the buffet and the mantel display dozens of gay greetings and the overflow is uncountable. The art lady has devised a gallery for them; her mother's oriental shawl with its dimmed colors hangs from the picture rail and the cards bloom out on its gold and red with striking and suggestive effect. What a wall adornment for some lonely shack, old Christmas with their color and sentiment. The dining room table let us hope, may now be allowed to return to normalcy and no longer be a bundle wrapping counter, littered with tissue paper, ribbon, seals, scissors, twine, gummed paper, what not. A knock at the door, a ring of the bell — more Christmas cards, well, well, well! S'Amuser.

One-Half at War
Roughly 50 per cent of the world's population is now considered at war. Although the Russo-Finnish peace subtracted 196,000,000 from the total number of belligerent peoples, population of the warring world still adds up to more than a billion. Largest warring group is that of the British empire — approximately 495,000,000. The French empire had 115,000,000; Germany, including Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland, 107,000,000. In the Far East, the Japanese empire, plus occupied areas in China, counts some 280,000,000 noses, while unoccupied China still holds an estimated 300,000,000.

"Tippecanoe"
The origin of the phrase "Tippecanoe and Tyler, too," was the refrain of a campaign ballad composed by A. C. Ross, which became the slogan of the Whigs in the picturesque national campaign of 1840. The Whig candidates in the election were William H. Harrison, who had been nicknamed "Tippecanoe" from the battle in which he first gained national fame, and John Tyler.

Flynn Takes Lead In Reducing County Expense

Recognizing the necessity of economy in public office County Clerk Michael J. Flynn voluntarily requested the finance committee of the Cook County Commissioners to reduce his budget appropriation for 1941 by ten per cent.

Flynn has promised that this voluntary reduction would in no way impair the efficiency of the various departments under his jurisdiction.

The 1941 judicial election will also have to be conducted by the county clerk's office. Mr. Flynn stated in his report to the finance committee, but this reduction will in no way interfere with the duties of the County Clerk in conducting the election, and providing sufficient facilities for the voters to exercise their franchise.

A Million Dollars in Fees Over a million dollars in fees have been collected by the office of County Clerk Michael J. Flynn for the fiscal year ending December 1, 1940, it was disclosed in the County Clerk's annual report to the Controller of Cook county.

This is the largest amount ever collected in fees in the history of the County Clerk's office. The report further reveals that $216,175.33 was the net profit over and above the cost of operations. This fact, which is usually prevalent in private enterprises, shows that a profitable and efficient operation of public office is possible.

Flynn revealed that the net earnings over the cost of operations would have in an ordinary year been a great deal greater, but pointed out that over $215,000 was expended to defray the cost of the Presidential election.

Due to the tremendous outpouring of voters this was the largest election in the county's history. The laws governing the conduct of a Presidential election authorize that each judge and clerk receive an additional eight dollars compensation in each precinct in which over three hundred votes are cast.

Farm Supply Declares Big Dividend

$45,000 Will Be Refunded To Members in Lake And Cook Counties

The Board of Directors of the Lake-Cook Farm Supply Company voted a $45,000 dividend to be paid to farmers in Lake and Cook counties at the annual meeting to be held at Lake Zurich on January 18, 1941. This dividend was passed at a special meeting of the board of directors held at Des Plaines, Ill., on December 20, following a review of the audit of the year's business.

This audit showed a substantial increase in business to attain a volume of $510,000.00 on which a big savings for the huge dividends was made by a strict adherence to the company's budget on operating expenses. The $45,000 dividend declared represents 6% on preferred stock, 15% on petroleum products and 7% on miscellaneous purchases consisting of feeds, seeds, fuel oil, etc. This 7% dividend on miscellaneous purchases is an increase of 1% over last year's dividend and the largest ever paid in this department by the company. This increase is due mainly to the greatly increased volume in the feed department due to the servicing of Blue Seal feeds. These feeds are put out by their own company as a supplement to farmers' home grown grains.

This large farm company has completed 13 successful years of business in which a substantial growth has been made from year to year and a substantial dividend has been paid to stockholders each year. The Lake-Cook Farm Supply Company services the farm trade of Lake and Cook counties with a full line of farm supplies including petroleum products, feeds, seeds, and is entirely owned and operated by the farmers.

The Board of directors is made up of active farmers in the territory, with eight from each county. These directors are:

Eb. Harris, Alfred Landmeier, D. H. Minto, Ed. Stumpf, Willard Darrell, Jacob Ouwenga, Earl Kano, Louis Huebsch.

A. J. Weidner, Ben Snyder, Bert Edwards, Louis Luerksen, Harvey Adair, Art Maue, Homer J. Long, C. A. Faulkner.

Many Attend Kirchoff-Martel Reception

Miss Carolyn Martel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martel, Medinah, N. D., became the bride of Edmund Kirchoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirchoff, of Elk Grove, in a quiet ceremony held at the parsonage of Rev. Kretzman, pastor of the Barrington Lutheran church, at four o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The bride was attired in white net with finger tip veil fastened with carnations. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Tagge, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Mrs. Tagge was attired in a blue taffeta dress and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A family group of eighteen enjoyed a six o'clock wedding dinner at the home of the groom's parents.

The reception attended by 150 relatives and friends of the contracting parties, was held Saturday evening at the V. F. W. club house, Mt. Prospect, where Abner Tagge and his four piece orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirchoff have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for their honeymoon. On their return home they will reside in the upper flat of the Louis Kirchoff homestead on Center rd. and will be at home to their friends after February 1.

Draft Questionnaires Now Under 300

The first 300 on the draft list residing in district one of Cook county have received their questionnaires from the Arlington Heights office. Classifications can not be made until the return of the questionnaires. The local office is functioning smoothly and present indications are that there will be few appeals. The board attempts to keep the public informed regarding methods of procedure and decisions made by the government by the publication in local newspapers of the bulletins, the current one of which follows.

"Conscientious objectors to military training under the Selective Service Act will be sent to civilian camps and put to work on reforestation and soil conservation projects, Paul G. Armstrong, State Director of Selective Service was informed today by National Headquarters.

"The contemplated proposal puts the responsibility for supervision and administration of these civilian camps upon the Selective Service System. The planning and engineering features of the program will become the undertaking of Federal Departments responsible for soil conservation and reforestation. The program has the approval and cooperation of the National Council for Conscientious Objectors.

"National Headquarters also sent word today that suggestions for an official symbol to be designated for display by the families of men selected for military training have been disapproved."

Many Attend Kirchoff-Martel Reception

Miss Carolyn Martel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martel, Medinah, N. D., became the bride of Edmund Kirchoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirchoff, of Elk Grove, in a quiet ceremony held at the parsonage of Rev. Kretzman, pastor of the Barrington Lutheran church, at four o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The bride was attired in white net with finger tip veil fastened with carnations. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Tagge, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Mrs. Tagge was attired in a blue taffeta dress and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A family group of eighteen enjoyed a six o'clock wedding dinner at the home of the groom's parents.

The reception attended by 150 relatives and friends of the contracting parties, was held Saturday evening at the V. F. W. club house, Mt. Prospect, where Abner Tagge and his four piece orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirchoff have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for their honeymoon. On their return home they will reside in the upper flat of the Louis Kirchoff homestead on Center rd. and will be at home to their friends after February 1.

Draft Questionnaires Now Under 300

The first 300 on the draft list residing in district one of Cook county have received their questionnaires from the Arlington Heights office. Classifications can not be made until the return of the questionnaires. The local office is functioning smoothly and present indications are that there will be few appeals. The board attempts to keep the public informed regarding methods of procedure and decisions made by the government by the publication in local newspapers of the bulletins, the current one of which follows.

"Conscientious objectors to military training under the Selective Service Act will be sent to civilian camps and put to work on reforestation and soil conservation projects, Paul G. Armstrong, State Director of Selective Service was informed today by National Headquarters.

"The contemplated proposal puts the responsibility for supervision and administration of these civilian camps upon the Selective Service System. The planning and engineering features of the program will become the undertaking of Federal Departments responsible for soil conservation and reforestation. The program has the approval and cooperation of the National Council for Conscientious Objectors.

WALTHER LEAGUE

Northern Illinois District

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

Happy New Year! Little bit late but nevertheless sincere. Only one day has passed and 364 more to come in which to be happy. Suppose everyone has made resolutions to be kept or broken, but several good ones which can be made and should not be broken, are to attend church regularly, attend Bible class faithfully, be sincere in your Walther League work, cooperate with your officers, and don't knock those who are leaders, fill your G. A. F. envelope as quickly as possible, resolve to speak highly of your friends and enemies, and many other resolutions which will help build your Lutheran young people's society.

In the true Christmas hospitable spirit, the Arlington Seniors were hosts to the Higgins-Canfield at a Christmas party on December 20. There was a play presented by a group of grammar school children, Christmas caroling around the Christmas tree, several rousing games, refreshments, and more singing. There were the Messrs. Prueter, the Mr. Von Bergen, the Mr. and Misses Schachtel, the Misses Rowoldt, Phyllis, Hazel, and so many more we couldn't begin to name them all.

Only about thirty Zone board members attended the Christmas party at Norwood Park on December 21, but how they did enjoy themselves.

Most of the Leagues showed the true Christmas spirit by sending gifts to Wheat Ridge, caroling at sick homes, the Old Folks' Home, sending candy and cookies to the Children's Home, etc. Quite a number of the Leagues sold Christmas cards, too.

Lucille Kolb was hostess to the Park Ridge Christmas party at her home on December 28. Several outsiders were there, too, and really had a grand time.

Again it is time for the winter rally, and this time it will be at Des Plaines on January 19. We don't have all the details yet, but as soon as we do have them, we'll let you know. In the meantime, set aside that date, January 19. The Norwood Parkers are being kept busy with the play practice for their play, "Faith, Hope, and Charity" to be given at their school hall on January 17 and 19. That Sunday seems to be a busy day, but if they succeed in changing the date, so much the better.

Will let you know about that, too.

Barrington, how about the roller-skating party invitation? There isn't much snow now to prevent us from going, and if it does, perhaps we can have a sleigh-ride party. Let's hear from you, Eleanor, or Herb.

Lutherans Dedicate Cross In Memory of Departed Members

Members of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, witnessed an impressive ceremony in the services of New Year's Eve. At this occasion the pastor, H. C. Fricke, dedicated a beautiful illuminated cross as a permanent ornament of the chancel.

The cross is imposing in size, being four feet in height. It is made of solid brass plates and the front is of opalescent glass, which diffuses well the 200 watt electric lighting. The center front carries the symbolic initials IHS, representing the Greek name for Jesus.

The new chancel cross has been dedicated to the memory of a number of departed members by their relatives. As such it will serve to remind the congregation of sacrifice of Jesus on the cross for humanity's redemption and it will also call to memory those beloved dead who passed into eternity trusting in "the old rugged cross."

Following is the list of the donors and their relatives in whose memory this cross has been dedicated.

Pastors Express Appreciation To Herald And Enterprise

There is no reason why editors are entitled to expressions of approval for their efforts in getting out a good newspaper, but editors are no different than other fellows and when such letters as the following two come to his desk, they make him swell up with pride, especially when the writers are ministers of the gospel, and he realizes that they are sincerely written:

December 28, 1940
H. C. Paddock Sons
Arlington Heights, Ill.
My dear Mr. Paddock:

Having had some experience along that line myself, I was not at all prepared to expect the very fine reproduction of our church decorations in today's "Enterprise." Let me assure you that I am very much satisfied and happy over the result, as are a number of members who have all spoken to me about it.

W. C. Koester,
Pastor Immanuel Evan.
Lutheran Church, Palatine, Ill.

H. C. Paddock Sons,
Arlington Heights, Ill.
Dear Sirs:

Although it goes without saying so, and you have the conviction of doing your newspaper job well, I am sure that a word of encouragement from a subscriber here and there gives you an increased feeling of satisfaction. When it comes to journalism and the making of a paper, I, of course, am a layman, unacquainted with many principles and doctrines thereof, but as a reader of your weekly I have absorbed much information from its pages which convince me that you print a well-balanced, well written, easily readable, straightforward, just and impartial, friendly paper that carries up-to-the-minute news and editorials.

Rev. W. S. Fechner,
Pastor St. John's
Church W. Northfield.

Wool From Milk

"Wool" made from milk resembles natural wool more closely than synthetic rayon resembles silk, says Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. The "wool" is produced from casein, milk's protein ingredient which closely resembles real wool in chemical composition.

WALTHER LEAGUE

Northern Illinois District

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

Happy New Year! Little bit late but nevertheless sincere. Only one day has passed and 364 more to come in which to be happy. Suppose everyone has made resolutions to be kept or broken, but several good ones which can be made and should not be broken, are to attend church regularly, attend Bible class faithfully, be sincere in your Walther League work, cooperate with your officers, and don't knock those who are leaders, fill your G. A. F. envelope as quickly as possible, resolve to speak highly of your friends and enemies, and many other resolutions which will help build your Lutheran young people's society.

In the true Christmas spirit, the Arlington Seniors hosts to the Higgins-Canfield at a Christmas party on December 20. There was a play presented by a group of grammar school children, Christmas caroling around the Christmas tree, several rousing games, refreshments, and more singing. There were the Messis, Pruetter, the Mr. Von Bergen, the Mr. and Misses Schachtebaj, the Misses Rowoldt, Phyllis, Hazel, and so many more we couldn't begin to name them all.

Only about thirty Zone board members attended the Christmas party at Norwood Park on December 21, but how they did enjoy themselves. Most of the Leagues showed the true Christmas spirit by sending gifts to Wheat Ridge, caroling at sick homes, the Old Folks' Home, sending candy and cookies to the Children's Home, etc. Quite a number of the Leagues sold Christmas cards, too.

Lucille Kolb was hostess to the Park Ridge Christmas party at her home on December 28. Several outsiders were there, too, and really had a grand time. Again it is time for the winter rally, and this time it will be at Des Plaines on January 19. We don't have all the details yet, but as soon as we do have them, we'll let you know. In the meantime, set aside that date, January 19. The Norwood Parkers are being kept busy with the play practice for their play, "Faith, Hope, and Charity" to be given at their school hall on January 17 and 19. That Sunday seems to be a busy day, but if they succeed in changing the date, so much the better.

Will let you know about that, too. Barrington, how about the roller-skating party invitation? There isn't much snow now to prevent us from going, and if it does, perhaps we can have a sleigh-ride party. Let's hear from you, Eleanor, or Herb.

Lutherans Dedicate Cross In Memory of Departed Members

Members of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, witnessed an impressive ceremony in the services of New Year's Eve. At this occasion the pastor, H. C. Fricke, dedicated a beautiful illuminated cross as a permanent ornament of the chancel.

The cross is imposing in size, being four feet in height. It is made of solid brass plates and the front is of opalescent glass, which diffuses well the 200 watt electric lighting. The center front carries the symbolic initials IHS, representing the Greek name for Jesus.

The new chancel cross has been dedicated to the memory of a number of departed members by their relatives. As such it will serve to remind the congregation of sacrifice of Jesus on the cross for humanity's redemption and it will also call to memory those beloved dead who passed into eternity trusting in "the old rugged cross."

Following is the list of the donors and their relatives in whose memory this cross has been dedicated.

Pastors Express Appreciation To Herald And Enterprise

There is no reason why editors are entitled to expressions of approval for their efforts in getting out a good newspaper, but editors are no different than other fellows and when such letters as the following two come to his desk, they make him swell up with pride, especially when the writers are ministers of the gospel, and he realizes that they are sincerely written:

December 28, 1940
H. C. Paddock Sons
Arlington Heights, Ill.
My dear Mr. Paddock:
Having had some experience along that line myself, I was not at all prepared to expect the very fine reproduction of our church decorations in today's "Enterprise." Let me assure you that I am very much satisfied and happy over the result, as are a number of members who have all spoken to me about it.

W. C. Koester,
Pastor Immanuel Evan.
Lutheran Church, Palatine, Ill.

H. C. Paddock Sons,
Arlington Heights, Ill.
Dear Sirs:
Although it goes without saying so, and you have the conviction of doing your newspaper job well, I am sure that a word of encouragement from a subscriber here and there gives you an increased feeling of satisfaction. When it comes to journalism and the making of a paper, I, of course, am a layman, unacquainted with many principles and doctrines thereof, but as a reader of your weekly I have absorbed much information from its pages which convince me that you print a well-balanced, well written, easily readable, straightforward, just and impartial, friendly paper that carries up-to-the-minute news and editorials.

Pastor St. John's

Arlington Heights Is A Busy Place During The Holidays

With informal gatherings in most of the homes of the village during the holidays, many cocktail, Tom and Jerry, and egg nog parties, gay children's parties, family gatherings on Christmas and New Year's day, the good folk of the village will be glad to see a return to the normal routine of living, and will this week dismantle the Christmas tree which is beginning to have that "too long" look, will send the college young folk back to school and will not be too sorry to get the "small fry" out from under foot. Good roast beef will taste good after too much turkey and the "trimmings" and while it was fun while it lasted Christmas is now 358 days away, and good resolutions will be made that shopping will be done sooner next year.

Some of the events of the past two weeks follow:

Arlington Heights Is A Busy Place During The Holidays

With informal gatherings in most of the homes of the village during the holidays, many cocktail, Tom and Jerry, and egg nog parties, gay children's parties, family gatherings on Christmas and New Year's day, the good folk of the village will be glad to see a return to the normal routine of living, and will this week dismantle the Christmas tree which is beginning to have that "too long" look, will send the college young folk back to school and will not be too sorry to get the "small fry" out from under foot. Good roast beef will taste good after too much turkey and the "trimmings" and while it was fun while it lasted Christmas is now 358 days away, and good resolutions will be made that shopping will be done sooner next year.

Some of the events of the past two weeks follow:

GLENVIEW CAR IS ONE OF THREE INVOLVED IN CROSSING COLLISION

Three cars were involved in a railroad crossing collision last Sunday night on Algonquin rd. and the Outer Belt line.

Ever Olson, Chicago, had stopped to allow a train to cross when his car was struck in the rear by that of Ted Melzer of Glenview. The latter's auto was struck, in turn, by another eastbound car, that of Frank Higgins, Oak Park. All three cars were damaged considerably with the Higgins vehicle suffering most.

PALATINE MOTORIST TURNS OVER ON PLUM GROVE

Charles Klum, Palatine, driving south on Plum Grove rd., Christ, was with his wife, was cut off and forced into the ditch by an unknown driver. Mr. Klum's car turned over but neither Klum nor his wife were seriously hurt.

COLLISION RESULTS WHEN DRIVER HAS TOO MUCH SPEED FOR TURN

Two cars collided last Monday evening at the junction of Rte. 58 and Sherman rd., when the driver of one of them had too much speed for an attempted turn.

Irving Lange of Waukegan, riding with his wife, daughters and mother-in-law, was traveling east on 58 when he attempted a turn at the junction with Sherman rd. The car was moving too fast, however, and Lange stopped his car just beyond the turn in the west-bound lane.

H. Smith, Wilmette, traveling west with his wife and daughter, hit the former car, damaging both vehicles. Smith's daughter, and Lange's mother-in-law suffered slight injuries but planned to see their own doctors.

GUARD RAIL BROKEN NEAR GLENVIEW

A guard rail was broken Saturday afternoon at the junction of Milwaukee ave. and Glenview rd. when Guy Williamson of Lake Villa skidded off of the road. The car was not damaged to any extent.

GLENVIEW AUTOIST DITCHES CAR WHEN CUT OFF

Edward Schneider, Glenview, was forced into the ditch last Tuesday evening while driving south on Waukegan rd. near Votz rd. An unknown northbound driver made a quick left turn just in front of the Schneider vehicle, forcing the latter into the ditch. Schneider escaped injury.

Roger W. Babson's Word's-Eye View For 1941

Cost of Living

Perhaps the most important figures for readers to watch in 1941 are those on the cost of living. During World War I, the cost of living increased greatly; but the prices of farm products went up with the prices of manufactured goods. Since then, however, the prices of farm products have fallen 60%, while the prices of manufactured products dropped only 30%. Prices may increase slightly more during 1941, but need not do so if no group kicks over the applecart.

We are now asked to supply only Great Britain with food and goods; while during World War I, we had to supply France, Italy, Russia, Japan and other nations in addition. The planes which England needs most do not take a large amount of raw materials. This applies as well to many of our other exports, although not to the ships which England must build here. Concerning food products, which England will need in large quantities, we already have an excess. Certainly there is no fear of a shortage in 1941 of sugar, which in 1920 sold at 22 cents a pound; wheat, which in 1918 sold at $2.30 a bushel. Perhaps most important of all is that we have learned much about controlling prices.

In certain lines such as among tool makers, shipbuilders, and plane makers, there will be wage increases in 1941. If by chance the number of unemployed is reduced from 7,500,000 to a normal figure of 4,000,000, then other wage increases are inevitable. Generally speaking, however, the cost of living should be the answer to the wage question. If the government acts sanely and taxes only if employees are reasonable about profits, then improved manufacturing processes should keep down the average cost of living. Certain materials such as metals, for which there is a great foreign demand, will increase in price; but other items, like cotton, the export of which has been severely cut, should show little change in price.

In short, if we will be reasonable and keep down the cost of living, most wage workers will not ask for more. It is true that labor leaders usually feel they must get something for their union members each year in order to hold their jobs as labor leaders and collect dues from members. In 1941, however, these leaders will have a good excuse and a fine alibi for not doing this. They can "pass the buck" to the government and to Mr. Hitler. I am very serious about this. Let us all, whether employers or wage workers, act in 1941 as if we were in the army, whether or not we have on a uniform.

High Pay Rolls - Few Strikes

Total pay rolls will be bigger in 1941 than ever before in our history. Even today with 7,500,000 unemployed, total pay rolls are higher than at the peak of the past period of prosperity, and much greater than during the "silk shirt era" of World War I. There are three reasons for this: (1) The United States has 20,000,000 more people. (2) The working week has been reduced from 48 to 40 hours. (3) Hourly wages have increased in nearly every line. Also, inventors and research engineers are making our dollar go further. Hence, when turning his pay envelope into food, clothing, and shelter, the man with a job is better off than ever before.

I do not believe any sensible labor leader, wage worker, or employer is going to think of striking during 1941. If the cost of living goes up, then let wages be amicably adjusted correspondingly. I surely forecast no industry-wide strikes during 1941. As to the Communistic element, the vote on last November 5 shows this is declining. Even the most radical know what has happened already to labor unions and their leaders in every country but the United States. I believe labor will show appreciation for its blessings by being extra fair during 1941.

Farm Income Uncertain

Ordinarily, farm income from marketing and benefit payments in 1941 should exceed the 1940 figure of around $9,000,000,000, but I cannot promise this. Weather is a very unpredictable and important factor. Exports will be so severely cut and such large surpluses already exist that I am not too optimistic on farm prices. Yet, if the cost of the things which the farmer must buy is kept down, he should be at least as well off in 1941 as in 1940. Interest rates will be in his favor, and taxes should not hurt him. There will be no new gadgets, such as automobiles, refrigerators, and radios, offered to his family during 1941 which he must buy. Furthermore, if Germany and Great Britain begin to use arsenic next summer to kill each other's crops, U. S. farmers may save the situation and really prosper. Considering all things, I think the farmers' cash income in 1941 may exceed 1940 by $450,000,000, or about 5%, despite the reduced exports of cotton, wheat, tobacco, and fruits.

All of this means that present benefits to farmers will continue throughout 1941 at around $800,000,000. In addition to the existing reasons for such benefits to continue, there is the additional pressure of South American diplomacy. The people of South America have only wheat, cattle, and other agricultural products to sell. We must help them sell them to keep their good will. This, however, puts a real handicap on U. S. farmers. If our farmers are to accept this burden, it surely is up to the rest of us to help them carry it. Hence, farm benefits will be more logical in 1941 than ever before.

Foreign Trade Outlook

Foreign trade will be very irregular during 1941. If allowed to take its natural course, it will slowly but steadily decline. Every now and then, however, something gives it a shot in the arm. Any hypodermic has a stimulating effect for awhile. The recent $100,000,000 loan to China and the talk of loans to South America are illustrations. If we repeal the Johnson Act, allowing loans to Great Britain, this will boost foreign trade for awhile. While the summer months and even September, 1940, showed constant slumps, October and succeeding months have shown improvement.

Business And Taxes

Every cloud has a silver lining. The need of huge taxes by the government insures good business. We cannot pay taxes without profits, and we cannot get profits without good business. But you say: "The government takes 50% of the profits one year, but does not share the loss another year." This is true to a certain extent. Hence, to get out of debt and avoid future losses should be one aim of every businessman in 1941, except those to whom the government is allowing heavy plant charge-offs.

When computed on an invested capital basis the Excess Profits Tax applies only after 8% is earned. Have you ever figured what 8% will give you when compounded annually? For instance, $5,000 at 8% compound interest would amount to over $50,000 in 30 years. When you multiply the amount by 10 or by 100, the result is stupendous. Moreover, it makes little difference to a conservative investor or businessman whether this 8% goes into dividends, or to plant improvement, or to debt reduction. I only asked Thomas A. Edison who was the world's greatest inventor. He flashed his eyes and replied: "That chap who invented compound interest!"

Outlook For Utilities

Although the eastern railroads should do better during 1941, so many banks and investors are waiting for a chance to unload, I do not foresee much prospect of a boom in railroad stocks. As for utility stocks, the situation is only a little better. The increase even in normal taxes will hurt the utilities more than any other group. Utilities, moreover, cannot raise their rates, at least during 1941. Therefore, the increase in normal taxes from 20% to 24% or more, comes out of the stockholders. This is not the case in many industries where the increase in normal taxes can be absorbed by higher prices of finished products. The only hope is that the increased consumption of electricity will offset this tax increase or else that the commissions will be more lenient as to depreciation.

Bonds and Industrial Stock

High-grade, long-term, low-coupon bonds are today in the same dangerous position as were the blue-chip stocks in 1929. They can move in only one way; and that is down. May not an investor be crazy to tie up his money at 2%, or even 3%, for thirty, twenty, or even ten years? There is justification for an insurance company, which knows that in 1950 it will need so much money and can base its premiums on a 2% rate, to buy these good bonds, but a bank or private investor has no right to do so. Also, I am not very keen for second-grade bonds except in special cases with which I personally am fully acquainted.

On certain groups of industrial stocks, however, I feel bullish. Stocks of companies having real assets in the ground look good to me. These include oils, coppers, pulps, chemicals, and certain steels.

Insurance stocks appear to be a safe group with good prospects—especially the fire insurance companies which are building up a conservative casualty business. During the inflation era following World War I, insurance stocks stood up almost the best of any group. Some of the banks and investment trusts, where the assets can be bought at a discount of nearly 50%, also look attractive. I believe 1941 will see very much higher prices for certain stocks.

Consumer Lines Active

Severe inflation would hurt shopkeepers; but 1941 will not see such. Certainly, the 1941 total volume of retail sales should exceed anything which this country has ever seen. With industrial activity continuing to rise, good merchandisers should prosper. This will also help service businesses and professional men. All down the line almost everyone should be in clover. Collections should be exceptionally good, while installment sales will reach great proportions. Main Street, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, will be wide open with music, lights, and bill boards galore. The U. S. will witness a shortage of only two things—parking space and character.

Existing inventories should show profits in themselves; while money properly spent upon promotion and advertising should pay handsome dividends. Salesmen who have been doing their missionary work during the past few years should now cash in with the biggest commission checks since 1929. Newspaper advertising, especially, should be upped at least 15%. Let me add here that the recent political campaign and War news have caused many consumers to become so upset by the radio, that they are now returning to their newspapers.

Conclusions

There really is only one thing which troubles me about 1941. It is that our prosperity may make us less dependent upon God, Whom we need now more than ever. The material destruction facing Europe and England—so terrible as it will be—may develop there a spiritual awakening of tremendous value. History shows that the rebirth of nations has come through adversity, never through prosperity. Hence, we must be on our guard that America with its material wealth is not left the most pagan of all nations.

Making life easy does not make it better. Avoiding war does not insure us against disaster. More money does not mean more self-control. Automobiles, electric refrigerators, and radios will not take the place of self-reliance, self-denial, and the willingness to cooperate for the common good. We all know that the great need of the entire world today is more of the Christlike spirit—of wisdom, sacrifice, and charity. Let us emphasize this during 1941, as otherwise our security and prosperity may be our temptation and our downfall.

Black Skimmer
The black skimmer, a species of bird related to the gull and tern families, has a novel way of dining.
The lower mandible of the bill is much longer than the upper, and the skimmer flies along the surface of the water, scooping up insects with his razor-like lower bill. Because this bird flies very close to the surface of the water when getting his free lunch, he cannot flap his wings downward to any extent for fear of striking the water and thus frightening his prey. The resultant flight of the bird is very erratic and comical.

Black Skimmer

The black skimmer, a species of

bird related to the gull and tern

families, has a novel way of dining.

The lower mandible of the bill is much longer than the upper, and the skimmer flies along the surface of the water, scooping up insects with his razor-like lower bill. Because the bird flies very close to the surface of the water when getting his

free lunch, he cannot flap his wings

downward to any extent for fear of striking the water and thus frightening his prey. The resultant flight of the bird is very erratic and comical.

By OWEN NANGLE
Pinch-hitting

The third annual De Kalb Holiday Tournament has just come to a successful conclusion and with it has come many other conclusions such as what happened to Palatine in the Waterman game after they had succeeded in piling up a 17-9 half-time advantage. The whole matter could have been attributed to nervousness, fatigue, or lack of confidence, but whatever caused the loss, there never was a doubt about the ability of the representative of the Northwest Conference. Palatine led the Waterman team up to the last quarter when Waterman's terrific surge to the front overcame Palatine's third quarter 23-19 advantage.

Another question that arises in the minds of fans is why the Hebron team didn't take the ball out of bounds when Kjellstrom was fouled with less than a minute to play and Hebron trailing Waterman by 2 points. Hebron definitely lost the game at the free throw line, by making a very low percentage of their free throws.

Considering the distance from Palatine to DeKalb, the Pirates had good support. Many familiar faces appeared in the overflow crowd that witnessed the games. For those who found it impossible to attend, the play by play description of the games by station W.M.R.O. of Aurora enabled them to follow their home team in the defeat to Waterman and the victory over Sycamore.

Very few tournaments have been planned and then executed so perfectly as the DeKalb tournament. From the first game Thursday until the last game Saturday, the games were run with clock-like precision. The teams that had to travel the most played in the morning and afternoon sessions while the teams that were located closer played in the night sessions.

The tremendous crowds that appeared for the night sessions were handled very capably by the management although many people were turned away for the Saturday night session. Entertainment was provided for the crowd during the halves and between games by the DeKalb township high school band. The band featured six drum majorettes, including the state champion who gave an exhibition on the art of baton twirling.

Little Ray Hahnfeldt put on a one man show with his one handed hook shot which helped to send several teams into oblivion. He scored 57 points to lead the tournament in scoring. Not many people would forget the fake that Hildebrandt threw at Diederich, DeKalb center who all but jumped into the crowd in attempting to stop Dick from scoring. Hollinger, while scoring 13 points held Sycamore's ace Zavislavak to but one basket helped immensely in Palatine's successful conquest of third place.

Snyder's left-handed hook shot while on the dead run in the DeKalb game drew an ovation from the crowd. DeKalb's leech-like guarding and ball handling in every game featured the Palatine defense. Along with Snyder the two of them kept opponents on the run. McCombs, Scholow, Golden, the tourney victories. They helped the latter half of the Malta and DeKalb games and gave the boys the rest needed to carry them through the tournament.

Art Bergstrom, one of the officials, was taken ill Saturday while eating dinner but recovered sufficiently to referee both games Saturday evening. The officiating at the tournament left little to be desired. Bergstrom and Vaughn had every game under control all ways. Good sportsmanship among the competing teams was apparent throughout the tournament and not once did we notice any player complain to the officials.

Not enough can be given to Mr. Wipert who took over the team in the absence of Mac. He traveled back and forth with the team and returned several times to scout other teams. He also sacrificed a well deserved Christmas vacation. Although Mac wasn't there in body he was in spirit and the boys showed it by extending themselves as far as possible and winning third place. Palatine had the best offensive and defensive record in the tournament. The Pirates averaged 35 points per game to their opponents 20.5.

Palatine Plays Downers Grove Saturday

Back from a successful trip to the DeKalb tournament, where they won the third place trophy, the Palatine Pirates took a well deserved rest the early part of the week and today went back to practice again. Saturday the Pirates travel to Downers Grove to battle Coach Barrows' five of the West Suburban League.

Last year Palatine beat Downers on the home court in one of the best games of the season. The opposition is headed by Ferguson, who is a high scoring center and was named first all state tackle in football.

Palatine has bested teams from the Chicago league, Suburban League, Little Seven, and North-east conference, but this will be the first clash with a West Suburban League team.

Next week the Conference race will get under way again with Grant invading Palatine. The Bulldogs are small but have been setting a dizzy scoring pace in winning their last three starts against Ela, Northbrook and Zion. Their lightweights are tied with the junior Pirates for first and the lightweight lead will be at stake in the preliminary game.

The big game of the season at Palatine is just ahead on Saturday, January 18, when Hebron's Green Giants come to the Pirates' court. The small floor should give Hebron's team, averaging six foot three, a decided advantage, but Palatine will give them a good battle. The record crowd of the year is expected to see this game, as Hebron has practically the same team that won the state in 1940.

Wayne Wipert has been handling the Palatine teams in a very efficient and capable manner during McElroy's siege of illness. He piloted them through the Wauconda games and the DeKalb tourney and will take them to Downers Grove this week. Just how soon "Mac" will be able to take full charge of both teams is uncertain. He hopes to be back on the job when school opens Monday, but may not be physically able to handle all the coaching work for awhile.

Pearl Buck Chides Women Who Lock Gateway to Life

ALL over the world women are locking the gates against millions of children not yet born. They are realizing the new value set upon them; realizing that their power is more formidable than any men possess.

Birth rates are not rising even at the commands of dictators. In the December issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine, Pearl Buck, famous novelist, writes that women are insanely afraid to bear children.

A grave mistake to bring human life into this present tortured world. To these women, Miss Buck poses this question "Who gives anyone the right to pronounce against giving life to children? Has anyone the right to decide for a child whether or not he shall be born into the world only to die?"

No place in the world, no time in the history of man has been good for all races and classes of men. But, Miss Buck points out, a world that is good for one generation may not be good for another. The world is constantly moving and changing, and if those waiting to be born are forbidden life for the reason of the moment, then there should be an end to the human race, the author reasons.

Women should not seek escape for their children, because no one is happy when he escapes the peace and safety, the despair and horrors of the world. "A perfect world offers no challenge," Miss Buck says, "no place for anger and indignation and effort and sacrifice and triumph and achievement and satisfaction and contentment and joy. These are the things that make it worth while to live, and therefore to be born."

Pirates Take Third In De Kalb Tourney

by OWEN NANGLE

The Palatine Pirates, present leaders of the Northwest conference, took third place in the annual DeKalb Christmas holiday tournament last week, placing behind Waterman and Hebron.

Palatine won its first two games handsily from Malta, 44 to 18 and from DeKalb, 43 to 15. Saturday afternoon the Pirates, fell before the second half onslaught of the Waterman quintet, 23 to 25, in the consolation game. Saturday night the Pirates won from Sycamore, 30 to 20.

Palatine 44, Malta 18

Palatine won its first game of the DeKalb Invitational Tournament by easily defeating a small Malta team 44-18.

Palatine started the scoring with a one handed hook shot by Ray Hahnfeldt and never was out of the net. Palatine continued scoring when Hollinger lifted a one-hander thru the hoops to put the Pirates out in front 4-0. Malta then scored its first point on a charity toss by G. Berg but this only acted as an incentive for the Pirates who then rang up three more baskets before G. Berg hit a twin pointer and another charity toss making the score 10-4. Hahnfeldt and DeBerger connected to bring the score up to 14-4 at the end of the first quarter.

The Pirates hit 8 out of 18 tries the second quarter with Hahnfeldt adding 4 more baskets to his previous 4 while the best Malta could do is connect one from the field and 4 times from the free throw line to make the half-time score 30-10.

Immediately after the second half began, Hahnfeldt, Snyder and DeBerger hit the first three shots taken in the second half and the substitutes took over from there on and held the Malta attack to eight points while they garnered eight themselves.

Hahnfeldt led the scoring with 19 points while G. Berg was high for Malta with 7. Hildebrandt played good defensive game and held D. Berg the scoring ace of the Malta quintet to one free throw. The Pirates made 20 baskets out of 62 tries for 31 per cent.

Palatine 43, De Kalb 15

The Pirates handed DeKalb one of the worst lacings the Barbs have taken this year by whipping them 43-15.

DeKalb never did get started and it became evident from the first minute of play that Palatine would again dominate play. Hahnfeldt opened the scoring on a tip off play Hildebrandt to Hollinger to Hahnfeldt. Hildebrandt tossed in a free throw on a foul by Plesia and Palatine had a 3-0 lead when DeKalb scored its first point on a free throw by Mosher. Hollinger rang up two baskets and Hildebrandt followed up a long shot successfully. DeKalb concluded its scoring in the first quarter on a free throw by Plesia. Hollinger and Hahnfeldt each tossed a free throw as the game began to assume rough proportions. The score at the quarter was 11-2.

In the second quarter DeKalb garnered 6 points while the Pirates were ringing up 14 to bring the half-time total to 25-8. Snyder opened the second half by flipping in a left-hander while on the dead run and Hahnfeldt got hot and parted the nets 4 times and added two charity tosses before the second team took over. DeKalb in the meantime had scored one basket by Plesia and the score at the third quarter was 39-10 in Palatine's favor.

With McCombs hitting two baskets and Scholow one, the second team outscored the DeKalb team 6-5 in the last quarter of the game. Hahnfeldt again led the Pirates' offensive by scoring 18 points on 7 baskets and 4 free throws. Plesia led DeKalb's scoring with 6 points.

Palatine ran into its first real competition of the tournament in the semi-finals and were turned back 29-23 holding a half-time advantage of 17-9.

Palatine opened the scoring on a one-hander by Hollinger but this basket was nullified on a long basket by Pee Wee Leifheit. Hildebrandt put in a charity toss and Hahnfeldt slipped two field goals thru the nets before Sawyer added a point on a charity toss to end the scoring for the first quarter with Palatine in front 7-3.

Hahnfeldt opened the second quarter with two one-handed flips and Waterman commenced its excessive fouling which saw Hollinger, DeBerger, Snyder and Hildebrandt all convert successfully before Sawyer hit on a long shot. Agnew sent a one-hander thru the net and DeBerger drove thru the middle to send Palatine ahead 17-7.

Sawyer and Leifheit narrowed the gap by adding two free throws and making the half-time score 17-9.

A determined Waterman team came on the floor the second half and began to peak away at the Palatine lead. Marshall hit two one-handers in a row before Hildebrandt hit for Palatine to make the score 19-11. Palatine stretched its lead when Snyder and Hahnfeldt added two baskets but Marshall came back with two more baskets with Schultz and Leifheit adding free tosses to make the score 23-19 at the end of the third quarter.

Palatine did not tally once in the fourth quarter while Sawyer hit on two long shots and Marshall added a basket. The turning point of the game appeared to be the two long shot by Sawyer in the last quarter, that tied the score at 23 all. Marshall was high scorer for the eventual champions with 15 points, while Hahnfeldt was high for Palatine with 10 points. The Pirates made 24 per cent of their shots after averaging over 31 per cent in their previous encounters.

Palatine 30, Sycamore 20

Sycamore fell before a group of determined Pirates, as Palatine won third place in the tourney 30 to 20. The Pirates started out as usual by building up an 11-3 lead at the quarter on two baskets and a free throw by Hollinger, and a basket apiece by Hildebrandt, Hahnfeldt and Snyder.

The second quarter, Sycamore began to close the gap, when Zavislavak, Wynn and R. George hit the basket for twin pointers. This narrowed the score to 11 to 9, and it appeared as if this game would see another let down in the Pirate offensive as was witnessed in the Waterman game, but Hahnfeldt came through with a pair of free throws and a basket. Sycamore concluded their scoring in the first half on two free throws by Thibau and one by Hennigan. The half-time score favored Palatine 15 to 12.

Sycamore came out with fire in their eyes the second half and Wynn tied the score at 15 all with sucker basket and a free throw. Hollinger then let go with a long shot that was good and sent Palatine into a lead which they never relinquished. Palatine led 20 to 16 at the end of the third quarter. Hollinger looked particularly well by holding Zavislavak, Sycamore's ace, to one basket, while garnering 13 points himself. Hahnfeldt was second in scoring with ten points, while Wynn led Sycamore with 7 points. As the result of the Pirate's victory over Sycamore, Palatine received a beautiful engraved trophy which will be placed in the trophy case at school.

Pinch-hitting

The third annual De Kalb Holiday Tournament has just come to a successful conclusion and with it has come many other conclusions such as what happened to Palatine in the Waterman game after they had succeeded in piling up a 17-9 half-time advantage. The whole matter could have been attributed to nervousness, fatigue, or lack of confidence, but whatever caused the loss, there never was a doubt about the ability of the representative of the Northwest Conference. Palatine led the Waterman team up to the last quarter when Waterman's terrific surge to the front overcame Palatine's third quarter 23-19 advantage.

Another question that arises in the minds of fans is why the Hebron team didn't take the ball out of bounds when Kjellstrom was fouled with less than a minute to play and Hebron trailing Waterman by 2 points. Hebron definitely lost the game at the free throw line, by making a very low percentage of their free throws.

Considering the distance from Palatine to DeKalb, the Pirates had good support. Many families appeared in the overflow crowd that witnessed the games. For those who found it impossible to attend, the play by play description of the games by station W.M.R.O. of Aurora enabled them to follow their home team in the defeat to Waterman and the victory over Sycamore.

Very few tournaments have been planned and then executed so perfectly as the DeKalb tournament. From the first game Thursday until the last game Saturday, the games were run with clock-like precision. The teams that had to travel the most played in the morning and afternoon sessions while the teams that were located closer played in the night sessions.

The tremendous crowds that appeared for the night sessions were handled very capably by the management although many people were turned away for the Saturday night session. Entertainment was provided for the crowd during the halves and between games by the DeKalb township high school band. The band featured six drum majorettes, including the state champion who gave an exhibition on the art of baton twirling.

Little Ray Hahnfeldt put on a one man show with his one handed hook shot which helped to send several teams into oblivion. He scored 57 points to lead the tourney in scoring. Not many people will forget the fake that Hildebrandt threw at Diederich, DeKalb center who all but jumped into the crowd in attempting to stop Dick from scoring. Hollinger, while scoring 13 points held Sycamore's ace, Zavislak, to but one basket before he was fouled out of the game.

Snyder's left-handed hook shot while on the dead run in the DeKalb game drew an ovation from the crowd. DeBerge's leech-like guarding and ball handling in every game featured the Palatine defense. Alone with Snyder the defense of them kept opponents in the run. McCombs, Scholow, Golden, the tourney victories. They helped the latter half of the Malta and DeKalb games and gave the boys the rest needed to carry them through the tournament.

Art Bergstrom, one of the officials, was taken ill Saturday while eating dinner but recovered sufficiently to referee both games Saturday evening. The officiating at the tournament left little to be desired. Bergstrom and Vaughn had every game under control all ways. Good sportsmanship among the competing teams was apparent throughout the tournament and not once did we notice any player complain to the officials.

Not enough praise can be given to Mr. Wipert who took over the team in the absence of Mac. He traveled back and forth with the team and returned several times to scout other teams. He also sacrificed a well deserved Christmas vacation. Although Mac wasn't there in body he was in spirit and the boys showed it as possible and themselves as first place. Palatine had the best offensive and defensive record in the tournament. The Pirates averaged 35 points per game to their opponents 20.5.

ALL over the world women are locking the gates against millions of children not yet born. They are realizing the new value set upon them; realizing that their power is more formidable than any men possess. Birth rates are not rising even at the commands of dictators. In the December issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine, Pearl Buck, famous novelist, writes that women are insanely afraid to bear children. They feel, she says, that it is a grave mistake to bring human life into this present tortured world. To these women, Miss Buck poses this question "Who gives anyone the right to pronounce against giving life to children? Has anyone the right to decide for a child whether or not he shall be born into the world of the times—the only world, after all, that we have?"

No place in the world, no time in the history of man has been good for all races and classes of men. But, Miss Buck points out, a world that is good for one generation may not be good for another. The world is constantly moving and changing, and if those waiting to be born are forbidden life for the reason of the moment, then there should be an end to the human race, the author reasons.

Women should not seek escape for their children, because no one is happy when he escapes the peace and safety, the despair and horrors of the world. "A perfect world offers no challenge," Miss Buck says, "no place for anger and indignation and play and effort and sacrifice and triumph and achievement and satisfaction and contentment and joy. These are the things that make it worth while to live, and therefore to be born."

Pirates Take Third In De Kalb Tourney

by OWEN NANGLE
The Palatine Pirates, present leaders of the Northwest Conference, took third place in the annual DeKalb Christmas holiday tournament last week, placing behind Waterman and Hebron.

Palatine won its first two games handsily from Malta, 44 to 18 and from DeKalb, 43 to 15. Saturday afternoon the Pirates fell before the second half onslaught of the Waterman quintet, 29 to 23. In the consolation game Saturday night the Pirates won from Sycamore, 30 to 20.

Palatine 44, Malta 18
Palatine won its first game of the DeKalb Invitational Tournament by easily defeating a small Malta team 44-18.

Palatine started the scoring with a one handed hook shot by Ray Hahnfeldt and never was headed or pushed by the small Malta outfit. Palatine continued scoring when Hollinger lifted a one-hander thru the hoops to put the Pirates out in front 4-0. Malta then scored its first point on a charity toss by G. Berg but this only acted as an incentive for the Pirates who then ran up three more baskets before G. Berg hit a twin pointer and another charity toss making the score 10-4. Hahnfeldt and DeBerge each connected to bring the score up to 14-4 at the end of the first quarter.

The Pirates hit 8 out of 18 tries the second quarter with Hahnfeldt adding 4 more baskets to his previous 4 while the best Malta could do is connect one from the field and 4 times from the free throw line to make the half-time score 30-10.

Immediately after the second half began, Hahnfeldt, Snyder and DeBerge hit the first three shots taken in the second half and the Pirates took over from there on and held the Malta attack to eight points while they garnered eight themselves.

Hahnfeldt led the scoring with 19 points while G. Berg was high for Malta with 7. Hildebrandt played good defensive game and held D. Berg the scoring ace of the Malta quintet to one free throw. The Pirates made 20 baskets out of 62 tries for 31 per cent.

DeKalb never did get started and it became evident from the first minute of play that Palatine would again dominate play. Hahnfeldt opened the scoring on a tip off play Hildebrandt to Hollinger to Hahnfeldt. Snyder opened the second half by flipping in a left-hander while on the dead run and Hahnfeldt got hot and parted the nets 4 times and added two charity tosses before the second team took over. DeKalb in the meantime had scored one basket by Plesia and the score at the third quarter was 39-10 in Palatine's favor.

With McCombs hitting two baskets and Scholow one, the second team outscored the DeKalb team 6-5 in the last quarter of the game. Hahnfeldt again led the Pirates' offensive by scoring 18 points on 7 baskets and 4 free throws. Plesia led DeKalb's scoring with 6 points.

ELIGIBILITY
To be eligible for relief, according to Section 17 of the Pauper Act as amended by House Bill 272, provides that only those who reside continuously in one unit for three consecutive years or more, have a legal settlement in a township which will provide for their relief and support if the necessity arises.

Section 16 provides that relief shall not be furnished by any Supervising Agency to any person unless he resided within their jurisdiction for a period of three years immediately preceding his application for relief, residence therein meaning his permanent home for a continuous period.

Analyzing this phase of the law, one not only must have lived for a period of these three consecutive years in one place, but this residence must have been immediately preceding his application for relief. Citizens eligible under this clause, after having attained age of 65 years must make application for Old Age Assistance. We have been reminded by the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission that the Overseer of the poor is responsible for those persons who have no other means of support. Persons waiving Old Age Assistance render themselves ineligible for relief from local government units because of the fact that Old Age Assistance is considered under "Means of Support."

CLASSIFICATION
In relief procedure after an application has been filed and accepted and the statements therein verified by the local government unit, the family is put on a budget basis. The monthly food allowance on this budget ranges from $4.75 for an infant to $8.50 for a child of 18. The maximum allowance for an adult is $7.40. The following percentages are allowed:

For a person living alone, add	40%
For two persons, add	35%
For three persons, add	25%
For four persons, add	15%
For five persons, add	10%

A determined Waterman team came on the floor the second half and began to peck away at the Palatine lead. Marshall hit two one-handers in a row before Hildebrandt hit for Palatine to make the score 19-11. Palatine stretched its lead when Snyder and Hahnfeldt added two baskets but Marshall came back with two more baskets with Schulz and Leifheit adding free tosses to make the score 23-19 at the end of the third quarter.

If food allowance totals $50.00 or more, deduct 5%.

The maximum rental allowance on this budget is $25.00, and only in necessary cases is this fund allowed. If relief recipient owns property and it is encumbered with a loan or mortgage, the only allowance would be the interest payment as the law forbids us to make payments on principal of loans or sales contracts.

The monthly clothing budget is as follows:

A man working	$2.25
A woman at home	1.25
A boy working	2.25
A boy in high school	2.00
A girl working	2.15
A girl in high school	2.15

Relief is granted exclusively on the basis of need. Need is considered to exist where income and other resources are not sufficient to provide the maximum necessities for a livelihood. Race, nationality, creed or political affiliations are not a factor in the determination of need. This relief is furnished to persons who are the legal responsibility of the overseer of the poor.

All relief from this office is furnished through disbursing orders, and at no time are payments made in cash to relief recipients. Disbursing orders are issued to merchants or vendors, or to the Medical profession, (if Medical attention is needed), which are then returned to this office by the vendors for payment. The relief recipient is permitted to select the vendor, or merchant, or Doctor, as the case may be, from whom he wishes to receive goods or services ordered.

Rents are not paid to members of the family or other relatives.

In determining the budget needs of a family all resources in cash, or in kind, are considered. If a relief recipient owns live stock or machines, they are not considered as resources if through these properties he receives an income which meets part of his needs. Other properties are considered an asset. Full or part time earnings by any member of the household shall be considered as a resource in determining the extent of need. Refusal of a wage earner to accept private employment, or W. P. A. employment, renders him ineligible for relief assistance. Savings and investments are regarded as resources. As this is a Pauper Act, fair credit of applicant should be extended until credit is exhausted. There is an Illinois Statutory law stating that relatives are legally chargeable in meeting needs of applicants. Where relatives legally responsible under the law are able but not willing to help applicant to their fullest and reasonable extent, the applicant may be required to bring a suit in the County Court before aid is granted. This law is in effect but to my knowledge has never been enforced in this territory.

Insurance policies shall be regarded as resources to the extent of their loan value and shall be borrowed against to the extent that they are not jeopardized. Special grants from organizations giving assistance to members are also taken into consideration. The term "organization" meaning Unions, Fraternal organizations, etc.

A permanent record of relief is kept by this office showing the amount issued, for what issued, and also the period covered. These are recorded on individual case cards so that at any time in the future reference may be made to these vouchers—which are also numbered numerically.

If for any reason a relief recipient does not receive assistance for a period of thirty days, a new application must be filed in the local relief office before the issuance of further assistance.

We are required to keep all these applications on hand and also all complete records of all relief activities for our own information, and also for furnishing the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission with such reports as are required. These reports are also used by the Commission in determining the relief needs for future months.

All these reports and records are audited periodically by a group of Auditors from the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Illinois.

(Next article will be on W. P. A. applications, budgets and surplus commodities.)

All relief from this office is furnished through disbursing orders, and at no time are payments made in cash to relief recipients. Disbursing orders are issued to merchants or vendors, or to the Medical profession, (if Medical attention is needed), which are then returned to this office by the vendors for payment. The relief recipient is permitted to select the vendor, or merchant, or Doctor, as the case may be, from whom he wishes to receive goods or services ordered.

Rents are not paid to members of the family or other relatives.

In determining the budget needs of a family all resources in cash, or in kind, are considered. If a relief recipient owns live stock or
